AMERICAN NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION

The American Numismatic Association is the largest and most active numismatic body in the world. It invites and welcomes to membership all worthy persons seventeen years of age or over, who have a sincere interest in numismatics, whether they collect coins, paper money, tokens or medals, whether advanced collectors or only those generally interested in the subject without being collectors. The Association was founded in 1891, and has over 23,000 members from every state in the Union and many foreign countries. It is incorporated in the District of Columbia and is a mutual organization for the benefit of its members.

All Association members, except Associate, receive the official publication, The Numismatist, without cost other than their annual dues. Membership applications should be accompanied by $5.00 for the first year's dues and $2.00 admittance fee. Annual dues are $5.00. Nonmember subscription, $6.00. Single copy, fifty cents. For application blanks, subscriptions or general information, write to the General Secretary.

The Numismatist is an illustrated monthly which has been issued continuously since its founding in 1888, consists of 128 pages or more in each number and has subscribers in about sixty countries. Advertising inquiries should be sent to the Advertising Manager. All other matters for possible publication in or concerning The Numismatist are to be forwarded to the Editor. Unsolicited manuscripts, which are sent at the owner's risk, and other correspondence calling for a reply must be accompanied by stamped, self-addressed envelopes. Opinions expressed in articles published in The Numismatist are those of the authors and do not necessarily represent the views of the American Numismatic Association or the Editor.

Diagnosing the Zerbe 1804 and 1805 Dollars

By

ERIC P. NEWMAN, A.N.A. No. 4624

An Edited Excerpt from a Talk Given at the 1961 A.N.A. Atlanta Convention

THE Zerbe 1804 and 1805 U. S. silver dollars were described for the first time in June, 1961 in a study published in The Numismatist, the Numismatic Scrapbook, Coin World and Numismatic News. Their existence was theretofore unknown to most numismatists including myself. Their border dentilation is exactly like all other dollars dated 1803 or earlier which fact distinguishes them from the 1804 dollars described in present and past numismatic literature. Their edge lettering is perfect. They each have the reverse known as Bolender Reverse A which reverse was also used on an aggregate of six varieties of dollars dated 1801, 1802, 1803.

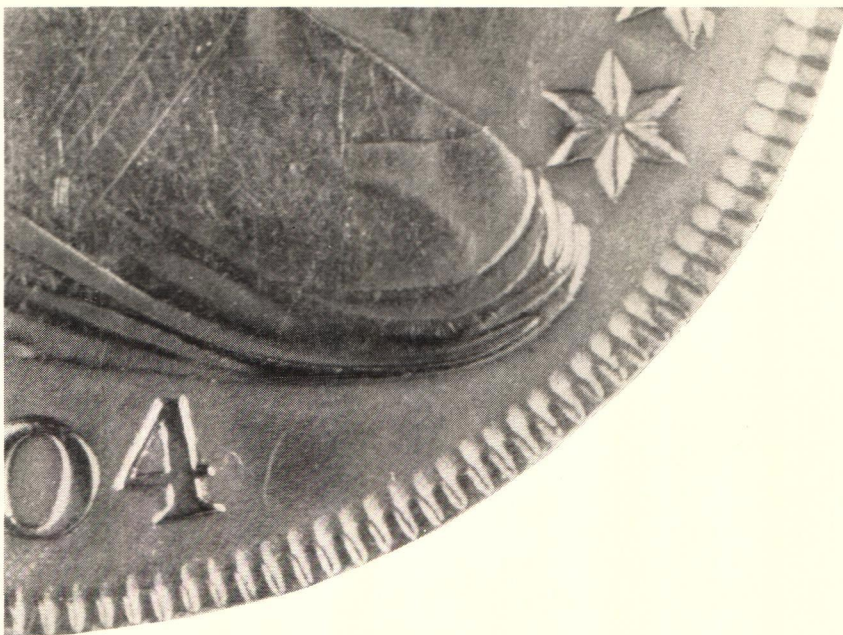

Since altered date 1804 dollars are not uncommon, a large amount of research went into the elimination of the possibility that the last figure of the date of a dollar from an earlier year had been removed and either a separate figure 4 or 5 soldered or otherwise affixed to the original coin. High magnification showed no joint on any part of the date on either coin. The most important point stressed respecting the 1804 and 1805 dollars, however, was that if the last figure of the date was disregarded, the obverse of each piece was different from all other known obverse die varieties. In other words, the relative position of the stars, letters and bust on each coin was different from all other obverses regardless of the date.

Both coins were sent from England to Miss M. A. Dunn of Brooklyn in 1939 with the suggestion by Spinks of London that they be shown to the late B. G. Johnson of St. Louis for verification. Arthur B. Kelley remembers Johnson showing them to him at that time. Johnson wrote to Miss Dunn that they were not genuine. Farran Zerbe, retired curator of the then Chase National Bank, considered them alterations as did his successor, Vernon L. Brown. Zerbe bought them for $50 in April, 1940.

A challenge of the 1804 Zerbe dollar could be made on the basis that the reverse of the coin shows a die state prior to the die state on some 1803 dollars, but during this period it was normal to alternate the dies of any date until they broke. A challenge of the 1805 Zerbe dollar could be made on the basis that the 5 stylistically is unlike the 5 used on 1805 half dollars and other 1805 denominations. This can be answered by pointing out the obvious style differences in the 4 on the United States coins of 1804 (omitting the dollar to avoid controversy). The historical arguments based upon mint records and on mint history, however effective, do not explain away the fact that the Zerbe dollars do actually exist.

A careful restudy of the Zerbe 1804 and 1805 dollars reveals that the points of some of the stars appeared to have been slightly re-aimed by shaving away and tooling part of the ends and sides. Normal six-pointed stars naturally have their points on opposite sides directly in line with one another, and this is true as to all stars on all obverses of early U. S. dollars. In the Zerbe 1804 the 10 and 4 o'clock points of the upper right star are not in line nor 180 degrees apart. In the Zerbe 1805 the 10 and 4 o'clock of the upper right star, the 1 and 7 o'clock points (see illustration) and the 10 and 4 o'clock points of the second star from the top on the right and the 10 and 4 o'clock points on the lower left star are not in line nor 180 degrees apart. All other stars on these coins have their opposite points in line and 180 degrees apart. With this clue it became clear that the star points could have been tampered with to avoid basic similarity to a known variety of another date.

Enlargement of lower right portion of Zerbe 1804 dollar showing long horizontal die break on bust and into field in line with center of lower right star. This identical die break is found in various stages on the 1802 over 1 (B-4) dollars.

Enlargement of upper right portion of Zerbe 1805 dollar showing tiny die flake on top of curl below center of R, as also found on 1803 (B-6) dollars. The unnatural misalignment of the 11 and 5 o'clock points of the highest star is evident, showing the 11 o'clock point aiming under the top serif of Y instead of to the right of it as on the 1803 (B-6).

On comparing the positions of the other stars relative to the bust, letters, and the 188 border dentils and disregarding the last figure of the date, it becomes clear that each element of the 1804 Zerbe dollar is identical to the 1802 over 1 Bolender 4 variety. On both of these coins the base of the E in LIBERTY is properly higher than the adjacent B and the figure 1 of the date is in the identical position of contact with the curl. A horizontal chest die break is found on both (see illustration). The reverses also correspond in die state.

Similarly each element of the 1805 Zerbe dollar, excluding the questioned stars and the last figure of the date, is identical with the large date 1803 dollar Bolender 6 variety. There are two tiny die breaks on the top of the curls under R and T on both the 1805 and 1803 B-6 (see illustration). Likewise, the lower left stars are too close and almost touch. The reverses also correspond in die state.

The conclusion may therefore be reached that since some of the stars on two separate well-known 1802 and 1803 dies show evidence of alteration that the last figure of the date could also have been altered, the 4 from a 2 and the 5 from a 3. Both Zerbe 1804 and 1805 dollars have always been together. Their basic 1802 and 1803 dies had star points in perfect condition. The fact that each of the Zerbe coins has acquired similar star point defects at critical places for die variety determination is most significant.

There is one more alternate to consider, namely, that the coins might be genuine overdates and that the mint modified the dies by punching a 4 over a 2 and a 5 over a 3 at the time of their dating. There is no evidence on either coin of such overdating as there is on all other overdates of the period. An examination of the questioned star points under high magnification indicates that the stars in each die were probably not repunched or recut, but were altered on the coins themselves. It is believed that this overdate thought must therefore be rejected.

To force metal from one position to another by expert tooling or chasing has been done before, but the skill and perseverance which would have been required in altering these coins is indeed fantastic.

I hope that the new facts which are pointed out with respect to these coins will not dim the hope of every numismatist to locate and reveal the identity of an unknown coin to the world.

Obituary

CONRAD A. KAHLER, A.N.A. NO. 27083

Conrad A. ("Conny") Kahler, 33, Carlisle, Pa., Assistant Professor and Librarian at Dickinson College, passed away June 17. A member of the Mother Church, the First Church of Christ Scientist, Boston, Mass., and of the First Church of Christ Scientist, Carlisle, he was laid to rest in Highland Cemetery, Winfield, Kans.

Born in Coffeyville, Kans., November 23, 1927, the son of Lt. Comdr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Kahler, USN (Ret.), he attended public schools in Rhode Island, Pennsylvania and New Jersey. He received his B.A. degree from Southwestern College in 1949, M.A. degree from Kansas State in 1951 and his M.L.S. from Rutgers in 1958. During his public school and college career, Conny was a star athlete, winning letters in football, basketball, baseball and golf. He was a shrewd and outstanding quarterback at Southwestern in 1946 where his father was Athletic Director and Head Football Coach. He was a member of both the Football and Basketball Hall of Fame as well as the American Library Association. He and his father belonged to the American Numismatic Association. He is survived by his parents and a brother, Dan A., Principal of the Arkansas City, Kans., Senior High School. — EGB

NEW AWARD MEDALS AVAILABLE

For some years, the A.N.A. and various regional societies and local clubs have been using medals as awards for exhibits and other outstanding achievements of members. In some cases special medals were designed and produced, but often the cost of these is prohibitive. The Medallic Art Company has stock medals available which have been used to obtain high quality medals at relatively low cost, even though they were not designed specifically as numismatic awards. The Chicago Coin Club initiated the use of these stock medals in October, 1955, when it issued ten to past presidents, six for exhibit awards and three for its medal of merit.

Medallic Art has prepared dies for the two medals, which can be supplied to numismatic organizations. The design, by Anthony Del Pino, showing a man in kneeling position with a woman standing behind him has been cut in a die $2\frac{1}{4}$ inches in diameter. The other design, by Carl Schmitz, depicts two seminude women standing by a seated man who is cutting a die. This medal is $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches in diameter. Both are uniface, leaving the reverse blank for suitable engraving.

These pieces are available in bronze at \$4.00 for the $2\frac{1}{2}$ inch design and \$5.00 for the $2\frac{3}{4}$ inch design. Either medal will be furnished with silver plating at \$2.00 extra, or gold plated at \$3.00 extra. Discounts will apply to orders for ten or more medals, and quotations will be furnished for sterling silver if there is enough demand. Medallic Art will cut dies and make both medals available in 2 inch size.

Machine engraving on the reverse will be furnished at twelve cents per letter or figure. For plated pieces, the engraving will be done before the plating so letters will have the same finish as other surfaces of the medals. Orders and inquiries should be directed to Medallic Art Company, 325 East 45th Street, New York 17, N.Y.

Once more Chicago Coin Club will score a first when it uses the new medals in bronze and silver plate as exhibit awards at its Fall Festival, October 13-15, 1961. Also, the best-in-show award will be one of the large medals, gold plated and mounted on a suitably engraved plaque. Oak Park Coin Club and Aurora Coin Club have ordered medals also for their November shows.

New Cuban Currency — The Government of Cuba decided recently to issue new currency notes to replace the existing peso bills to stop the illegal importation of the latter. Cubans were permitted to exchange up to $200 of their old bills for new money; and were required to deposit any amount over $200 in a special account at the National Bank, from which it could be withdrawn in the new currency after August 14. All amounts in excess of $10,000 were, however, held to be in violation of a law issued in May and are to be confiscated by the Government.

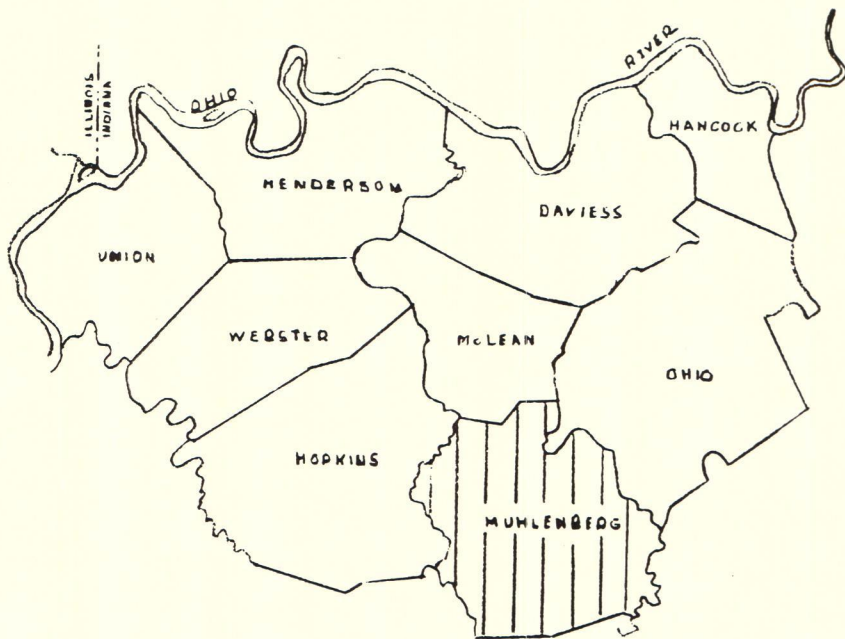

DEMISE OF THE "FLICKERS"

By

M. DAVID ORRAHOOD, A.N.A. No. 34725

COMMISSARY checks, or "flickers" as commonly called, were negotiated in the general community composed of Muhlenberg County, Ky., at varying discounts as high in some instances as fifty per cent of face value. Ellis Under-sought hard cash for the scrip rather than merchandise. When the Kirk Coal Company refused payment, he brought suit to recover full face value. The adverse decision against the coal company effectively ended the commissary credit wood,⁷ in the general mercantile business at Beech Creek, Ky., accepted $303.75 scrip issued by the Kirk Coal Company in payment for merchandise at his independent store.

Ignoring a community practice of over twenty-five years, Underwood system in Muhlenberg County in 1940.

The Kentucky Constitution succinctly states that all wage earners will be paid in lawful money. The 1924 Assembly enacted a statute providing that wage earners could redeem scrip in cash and that the issuer is required to do so on a monthly basis. A statute of 1932 authorized an employer of labor to issue scrip as a medium of credit in payment for labor to be performed.

The Kirk Coal Company based its defense on the 1932 statute which authorized commissary checks. The plaintiff based his case on the Kentucky Constitution and the 1924 enactment of the legislature.

These laws had been written over many a year and the provisions and penalties were not fully appreciated. The court pointed out that laws were to be taken as a whole and to be considered harmonious. The court further affirmed that "the only perfect media of exchange is the legal tender of the United States." It pointed out that the practice of accepting "merchandise only" for face value was a forceful handicap which effectively beats down the market value of scrip. Finally, the court considered the practice monopolistic and inimical to society.

Judgment for Underwood was brought in conformity to the law and the Kirk Coal Company was obligated to pay full face value in legal tender for its outstanding scrip.

Twenty years later, R. R. Kirkpatrick,⁵ General Manager of the Beech Creek Coal Company, wrote:

We discontinued the use of these checks when someone decided to collect in cash the full amount of the checks. When he won out, all the mining companies discontinued their use, and made the work charges to the mens' account. When we did away with the use of these checks, we destroyed them as fast as they came in and I do not know where I can get hold of any now.

The Western Kentucky Coal Field² is the official geological designation comprising nine counties of Kentucky included in the great Eastern Interior Coal Field of Kentucky, Illinois, and Indiana. Counties entirely within the Western Coal Field of Kentucky are Daviess, Hancock, Henderson, Hopkins, McLean, Muhlenberg, Ohio, Union, and Webster. This study is limited to the commissary check issued by the coal mines operated in the County of Muhlenberg which has been the leading producer of coal in this region.

Since 1820 with the establishment of the McLean Mine on the Mud River, there have been 116 operating mines in the county. In 1912, twenty-five mines⁶ were listed; in 1926, forty mines³; and 1961, fourteen mines. This is not complete since a number of "winter mines" operated in good times by single individuals are nowhere recorded or now known.

It would appear that "flickers" were issued from 1915 to 1940 by established operators who also owned a company store or had arrangements with such stores. L. H. Brown,¹ Vice President of the Duncan Coal Company from 1917-1958, writes as follows on the use of "flickers":

Commissary checks, or "flickers" as they were frequently called, were in essence credit tokens, and it is extremely unlikely that any record of date of issue, number issued, number outstanding or check accounting, was kept, or if so, would still be available. The principle of the use of the commissary check was about as follows: An employee of the coal company who desired credit at the commissary could request issue of checks against work performed or work to be performed. The checks so issued would be charged against the employee's payroll account, and their face value would be deducted from the amount due him for work performed on the following pay day. The checks would then be spent at the commissary, for merchandise as required.

Checks attained a certain amount of general circulation in the immediate neighborhood of the commissary, since they could be redeemed, in merchandise, upon presentation at the commissary by any bearer. For example: A miner in immediate need of cash might draw checks at the commissary in face value, of say $10.00, and sell them to a third party for cash at a negotiated discount; or he might use them to barter for goods or property with the local merchants, fellow employee, etc.

R. R. Kirkpatrick⁵ stated:

Our employees who were in good shape and drew money on pay days never misused these checks; but men who did not work too well and were nearly always in debt to us and could not draw money on pay day, would take up as many of these checks, or flickers as often referred to by the men, as we would let them have and sell them at a discount.

The scrip found from Muhlenberg County is cataloged geographically in conformity with the six great coal provinces as designated by Marius Campbell⁴ of the United States Geological Service. For Muhlenberg County this is Interior Province, Eastern Interior Coal Field, West Kentucky Coal Field, Muhlenberg County. Classification as used by Province, Field, Section and County is recommended as a scheme for other scrip found in other counties in the coal provinces of the United States.

Within the county, coal companies are cataloged alphabetically with the name of the company, address of the company, name of the mine, address of the mine, shipping address of the mine, and dates of operation. Since the company in several instances is located out of the county, the mine location in the county is taken as the county of location.

The scheme for classification of the scrip is denomination, metal, obverse and reverse symbols, obverse and reverse inscriptions, minimum and maximum size, minimum and maximum weight, note on total number of known specimens, degree of rarity, specimens of the type in museums or in collections and reference to former publication, if any.

Following the above classification, the author has cataloged twenty-five different companies. Of these, there are thirty-nine different types and 234 varieties of flickers. The W. G. Duncan Coal Company issued a total of six different types and thirty-six varieties to rank first in number of types. The "flickers" of the W. G. Duncan Coal Company, Black Diamond Coal Company, and the W. A. Wickcliffe Coal Company are rather plentiful and fairly easily obtainable in Muhlenberg County to this day, but others are difficult to obtain. The author's collection contains ninety-two of the 234 varieties suspected to exist.

The early "flickers" are made of brass and are of similar construction and design (Fig. 1). Copper-nickel is used from the early twenties to the middle thirties or later. Aluminum "flickers" are known to have been issued at various times but particularly during the shortage of metals during World War II. The scrip of the Central Coal Company of Central City, Ky., are numbered tokens of artistic design made of silver metal issued during the thirties. These are the most desirable for a collection (Fig. 2).

"Flickers" are issued in denominations of one dollar, fifty cents, twenty-five cents, ten cents, five cents and one cent. The Black Diamond Coal Company issued five dollar mercantile "flickers," any other company issuing these is unknown.

The "flickers" are approximately the diameter of United States decimal coinage. With slight variations the standard sizes are those of the Black Diamond Coal Company: thirty-five mm. for the dollar; thirty mm., fifty cents; twenty-four mm., twenty-five cents; twenty-one mm., ten cents; nineteen mm., five cents; fifteen mm., one cent. The silver "flickers" of the Central Coal Company are exceptions in that the dollar size is twenty-four mm.; the nickel, seventeen mm.; the twenty-five cents, twenty mm.

These tokens are round in shape, with few exceptions. The early pieces of the W. G. Duncan Company are octagonal and somewhat smaller in some instances than the round flickers (Fig. 3). Some "flickers" are hole-punched with characteristic trade marks of the companies. The Black Diamond Coal Company uses a diamond off center. The Nelson Coal Company is punched with an "N". The W. A. Wickcliffe Company has an arrow punched in some later type flickers (Fig. 4). The W. G. Duncan Coal Company uses a double arrow punch.

Some companies impress their "flickers" with trade marks: A diamond for the Black Diamond Coal Company; a triangle for the Insurance Credit Plan; a triangle enclosing a "D" for the Diamond Black Coal Company. The outer rims of the "flickers" show various borders, either raised or flat, with no markings on the outer rim. The five dollar piece of the Black Diamond Coal Company has a fluted border for the large size.

Many "flickers" from the earliest date are marked by one of the credit systems employed. The reverse of early Black Diamond tokens is stamped by the Insurance Credit System of Dayton, Ohio. This type is patented June 10, 1910. Later Black Diamond Coal Company tokens are from the Orco System, Osborn Register Company, Cincinnati, Ohio. The Diamond Coal Mining Company used the Master Metal scrip of the Ingle Schierloh Company, Dayton, Ohio. The latter is represented in the ninety-two varieties by only one example, a one cent piece, seventeen mm.

With varying regularity "flickers" have the name of the operator, town, store, mine, or credit system from which the company obtained them. The most consistent designation is the denomination and the designation that the "flickers" are GOOD IN MERCHANDISE OR TRADE ONLY. Only those of the Central Coal Company, Central City, Kentucky, are issued serially numbered.

As credit tokens, "flickers" were widely abused in credit, in barter and by dealers. The Underwood-Kirk decision brought to rapid demise a system which was riddled with malpractice.

The use of tokens was a method of issuing credit to men before payday. Some workers were always overdrafted and perpetually in debt to the company. In one instance, a correspondent related that a man worked all his life and was never out of debt to the company. The mines seldom worked regularly. What with strikes, low orders, bad weather, floods and breakdowns, only a few were debt free.

The discount on this scrip in exchange for hard cash was as high as eighty per cent in one instance, whereas it was a general practice to discount the flickers twenty-five or fifty per cent. The men receiving them before payday would discount them to fellow workers, stores, or other sources for money. This practice was so prevalent that firms warned that office personnel found engaging in this practice would be fired. Younger miners would accept "flickers" and exchange them for cigarettes which were, in turn, traded for other commodities in the community.

Finally, "flickers" were abused by the dealers. This part of the story is hardest to document since no one wished to be implicated. It is generally accepted and told by merchants that prearranged deals were made to turn these "flickers" back to the coal company for payment in cash. In the Underwood-Kirk case one of these arrangements was indicated between the Kirk Mercantile Company and the defendant. That such transactions took place can safely be concluded by the free use of the pieces for a twenty-five year period. Evidently the Beech Creek merchant did not have such an understanding with the company. Dave Cohen, a merchant of Central City, related that in 1943 he had approximately $100.00 worth of "flickers" in a bag for which he was never reimbursed.

No accurate information is available on the number of "flickers" issued or circulated in Muhlenberg County from 1915 to 1943. I. C. Washburne, formerly of the Beech Creek Coal Company and now a trustee of the Black Diamond Coal Company, states that the outstanding tokens of the latter might have run as high as $5,000.00 at a single time. Since they were generally turned in as soon as issued, the company had some control over them. As cashier for the Beech Creek Coal Company Washburne was in charge of melting down at least $8,000.00 worth of the metal scrip in 1943 when all coal companies decided to do away with it. A large hoard of Black Diamond Coal Company (1900-1947) "flickers" was found to exist today when the offices and safe of the old mine were recently opened. J. D. Webb of Hillside, Ky., relates that large amounts of "flickers" were turned over to the blacksmiths of the mines to be melted. Other employees, as well as officers of the mines, say the tokens were thrown away, some in the Green River² or otherwise destroyed.

Somalia's Monetary System — The Republic of Somalia, which became independent on July 1, 1960, consists of a Southern Region (the former Trust Territory of Italian Somalia) and a Northern Region (the former British Protectorate of Somaliland). As from June 26, 1961, British East African shillings ceased to be legal tender in the Northern Region, the new currency being the Somali shilling, which has been exchanged at the rate of one Somali shilling for one East African shilling, equal to U.S. 14¢. There is still a considerable amount of British East African shilling currency in circulation.

NEW OR RECENT ISSUES

Described by ERNST KRAUS

It is the important duty of The Numismatist to record and illustrate new coins. To accomplish this, members in the United States and abroad are invited to submit new issues to Ernst Kraus, Apt. A, 1501 E. Mt. Airy Ave., Philadelphia 50, Pa. Coins will be photographed and returned as soon as possible, and a credit line will be given to anyone assisting.

DENMARK

10 Ore, 1961. Copper-Nickel. Obverse: Monogram for King Frederick IX. Crown above dividing date, mintmark for Copenhagen on bottom. Reverse: Value within wreath, DANMARK on top. Plain edge.

25 Ore, 1961. Copper-Nickel. Similar except for size and value. According to J. B. Westergaard, who donated the above specimens to the A.N.A. collection, in contrast to the 1948 issues the wreath has been transferred to the reverse and accomplishes a more pleasing design.

ICELAND

UNITED ARAB REPUBLIC - EGYPT

1 Millieme, 1960. Bronze. Obverse: Emblem for UAR, Salah Eddine eagle with shield of two stars, legend below. Reverse: Value in center Arabic numeral 1, "millieme" below, Christian date at left 1960, Muhammedan date 1380 A.H. at right, legend on top: "United Arab Republic, Misr (Egypt)" below. According to F. Bajocchi, A.N.A. District Secretary for UAR, who submitted a photograph of the above specimen, 5 and 10 milliemmes of similar design may be expected soon.

1 Bolivar, 1960. Silver. Obverse: Head left, designer name BARRE and mintmark for Paris below, legend around: BOLIVAR LIBERTADOR. Reverse: Arms in center, value, date, weight 5 GR. LEI 835 all below, legend on top: REPUBLICA DE VENEZUELA. Reeded edge. According to Peter Franquet, A.N.A. District Secretary, who donated the above to the A.N.A. collection, these coins are now being struck at the mint in Paris, the first time since 1914. The design is almost identical to the 1954 issue, made at the Philadelphia mint, except for the mintmark and some minor changes in the lettering. Other denominations expected shortly are one-quarter, one-half and 2 bolivar coins.

Addenda: We are indebted to Lauren Benson and Joseph B. Rosenberg for sending various new issues to us for illustration.

Notes & Queries

To Atlanta from Texas

Dear Friends:

Congratulations on a convention well done. The friendship, hospitality, and courtesies shown us at the American Numismatic Association convention will long be remembered. May we say, to all who worked so hard, that you have set a score which will be hard for those who follow you to make.

Three Days for Chicago's Annual Fall Festival

Three days, October 13-15, will be given over to this year's Fall Festival of the Chicago Coin Club in the Hotel Sherman, Chicago, Ill. Ben's Stamp and Coin Co. of Chicago will conduct the auction of choice material of interest to everyone. The bourse will consist of about a hundred dealers from coast to coast, including most of the largest in the country. A few spaces are still available.

Exhibits will be representative in all classes. Awards will be the new numismatic medals just released by the Medallic Art Company.

"A cordial welcome is extended to all," says Harry X Boosel, General Chairman, 65 E. South Water St., Chicago 2, Ill. "A Hospitality Room is to be set aside for the women where they may slip off their shoes and visit. The local ladies will serve refreshments.

"Five different denomination gold pieces are offered as door prizes; winners need not be present at drawing. Registration fee is only a dollar. So come to Chicago. Eventually, everything and everybody comes to Chicago, Numismatic Crossroads of the World."

Bourse chairman is Nathan Eglit, 134 N. La Salle St., Chicago. Philip J. More, 1633 Monroe St., Evanston, Ill., is in charge of the exhibits.

Michigan Convention

The sixth annual fall convention of the Michigan State Numismatic Society will be held at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel in Detroit, Mich., November 24-26. Detroit Coin Club will be the host. The fall meeting is always one of the leading numismatic events of the Middle West and the convention committee, under the leadership of General Chairman Earl C. Schill, is working diligently to present a well organized and enjoyable convention. Other committee members are: Ben Stocker, Henry R. Burns, George D. Hatie, Edward J. Stanners, Jr., Paul Landry, Pierre Palmentier, Albert J. Polder, Daniel C. Parker, Nedra Gonzales, Marjorie Schilling, Arline Burns and Helen Bernauer.

The auction will be conducted by Tom Ryan of Chicago. Information regarding bourse space can be obtained from the Bourse Chairman, Ben Stocker, 19953 Prest Ave., Detroit 35. Exhibit rules and applications may be secured from the Exhibits Chairman, Henry R. Burns, 15486 Auburn, Detroit 23. Other inquiries should be directed to Earl C. Schill at 1434 Farmer St., Detroit 26.

CHARLTON ON TV

The CNA convention received advance publicity when J. E. Charlton was interviewed by Betty Jane Talbot on Canadian Broadcasting Corporation's Toronto TV station CBLT August 9. The well known Canadian dealer showed, among other rarities, the Canadian 1921 5¢ and 50¢, 1936 dot cent, 1908 and 1911 proofs, Newfoundland gold sets.

Paper Money Collectors Are Organizing

When Blaise Dantone's party threatened to interfere with a called meeting of paper money collectors during the Atlanta convention, he removed the problem by inviting the group to his party to hold its meeting in his home. So, amid the evening's festivities, the meeting was held with a good attendance.

In brief, the outcome was the appointment of a steering committee charged with drafting bylaws and proposing other features of an organization. The committee is composed of H. R. (Hank) Bieciuk, Chairman, Dr. Julian Blanchard, James J. Curto, Eric P. Newman and Glenn B. Smedley. It held a subsequent meeting and expects to have an outline of organization to present to prospective members in October.

Paper money collectors who indicated their interest prior to or during the Atlanta convention will be kept informed of progress. Others should ask to be put on the mailing list by writing to Hank Bieciuk, P. O. Box 1235, Kilgore, Texas.

Money Museum Opened in Japan

On May 15, the Money Museum Room on the seventh stair of the newly completed head office of the Bank of Nagoya was opened. Curator Haruhiko Kido, who started his numismatic career at an early age and is now a leading numismatist, expects to develop this Money Museum to the highest rank.

With the intention of devising an exhibit room best fitted to give understanding and interest to the general public, Mr. Kido inspected many exhibit rooms and museums in Japan and abroad. Many ideas, especially from Chase Manhattan Bank's Money Museum in New York City, were selected and combined with his own in designing this splendid exhibit.

There are two rooms, one for coins and one for paper money, having a combined area of about twenty-three hundred square feet. On view are about ten thousand items, including primitive money, coins of ancient Japan and China, and coins and paper money of many countries. Arrangement is chronological and divided in a systematic manner by countries. Modern but simple furnishings are in traditional Japanese styles, giving the visitor an agreeable impression.

New Louisiana Association Holds Successful Convention

With the Cenla Coin Club as host, the first convention of Louisiana State Numismatic Association was held July 15 and 16 in the Bentley Hotel in Five coin clubs were represented by their presidents at the first Louisiana Numismatic Association meeting. They are, from left, Wayne Davis, Shreveport Coin Club; Bill Dolch, Southwest Louisiana Coin Club of Lake Charles; Arthur Samson of the Crescent City Coin Club, New Orleans; William B. Kearns, Cenla Coin Club and Louisiana Numismatic Assn. president; A. I. Martin of Houston Coin Club and Texas Numismatic Association.

Alexandria and attracted some seven hundred visitors. William B. Kearns, General Chairman, was assisted by Exhibits Chairman James Justiss; Auction Chairman W. W. Rollo; Mrs. Doris Kearns, Reservations; Mrs. Beverly R. Bullock, Registrations; and Bourse Chairman T. P. Hatfield.

The exhibits and auction included many fine and rare pieces. Twenty-eight bourse dealers from seven states did a lively business which left them long on cash but short on stocks. The interest shown by all prompted the Association's Board of Directors to decide on semiannual shows, the next to be held in Shreveport on April 14 and 15, 1962. William B. Kearns of Alexandria is President of L.S.N.A., and Wayne W. Davis is President of Shreveport Coin Club, host to the April affair.

Illinois County Issues Trade Coin

In connection with the early September celebration of the one hundred twenty-fifth anniversary of Will County, a "gold" half dollar size coin was used in Joliet. It bears the anniversary seal on the obverse and its 50¢ trade and redemption value on the reverse. Collectors may obtain this souvenir token by sending 55¢ for one or $1.60 for each three wanted to Celebration Headquarters, Rialto Theater Bldg., Joliet, Ill.

Coin Company and Journal Separated

Metropolitan Coin Company announces that partner Paul Weinstein has taken over sole ownership, with a new address of 163A W. 10th St., New York City 14. He will continue to deal in choice early American coins, a new catalog having just been issued. Former partner Lynn Glaser takes over independent publication of Numismatic Journal, formerly Metropolitan Numismatic Journal, with Walter Breen continuing as editor. They are improving the format and printing, but expect to continue the subscription rate of $3.00 for six issues a year. Serious collectors of American coins are invited to send subscriptions to the old address, 3012 Joshua Rd., Lafayette Hill 1, Pa.

Penn-Ohio Fall Show October 13-15

First-time exhibitors at the Penn-Ohio Fall Convention will compete for the Nate Gold award, donated by Cleveland Coin Club in Nate's memory. Awards will be made for the rare exhibits expected in six classes at the Statler Hilton Hotel in Cleveland, October 13-15. The popular dealer Michael Kolman, Jr., will conduct a three-session auction which will include U. S., foreign and ancient coins in various metals and other rare items. A catalog will be sent on request by the Federal Coin Exchange, 5940 Pearl Road, Cleveland 30, O.

An 1863 three dollar gold coin, valued at $175, will go to some lucky registrant Sunday afternoon. A large bourse is assured and there will be four half hour panel discussions on various numismatic topics. A banquet will be the feature of Saturday evening.

New Hampshire Exhibition October 28 and 29

Tri-State Collectors' Exhibition, Inc. offers awards in four classes (philatelic, numismatic, Civil War and miscellaneous) at its sixth annual exhibition to be held October 28 and 29 in Masonic Hall, Concord, N. H. The committee will receive exhibit applications up to October 10. The show will be open to the public from 10 a.m. to 11 p.m. on Saturday and from 1 p.m. to 7 p.m. on Sunday.

A cachet for this exhibition will depict a Civil War emblem of a New Hampshire regiment and will use the Fort Sumter commemorative stamp. Requests for the cachets at 10¢ each should be directed to Clifton A. Smith, Tri-State Collectors' Exhibition, P. O. Box 391, Concord, N. H.

New Lincoln Medal Offered

Presidential Art Medals, Inc. displayed the Abraham Lincoln medal of its presidential series at the A.N.A. Atlanta convention and has it available at $10 in silver and $2.50 in bronze. This unusually high relief medal, slightly larger than a half dollar, was designed by Ralph J. Menconi after careful study of several hundred Lincoln portraits. He also designed the John F. Kennedy medal, first in the series. Many local coin dealers have these medals, and will have others in the series as they are released, or they may be ordered from Presidential Art Medals, Inc., 5024 Pepper Dr., Dayton 24, Ohio.

Missouri Numismatic Society Registers 1541 at Show

General Chairman David L. Cooper and his committee were elated at the over-all attendance of some 2,500 at the second annual Coin Festival of Missouri Numismatic Society in the Statler-Hilton Hotel, St. Louis, August 12 and 13. The 50¢ entrance charge to adults was good for admission both days and for participation in hourly door prize drawings.

Nine competitive exhibits were shown and judged on the point system, the following being award winners: first, $50, Mrs. Bernice Stevenson, for illuminated display of silver and gold Mexican coins; second, $25, Mrs. Caroline Boehme, complete set of presidential medals with related material; third, $15, Roslyn M. Gorski, well described display of mint errors; fourth, $10, Joseph Rataj, presidential medals with pictorial vignettes.

An eighty lot auction each day was expertly handled and drew a good response. All fifty-three bourse tables were occupied by dealers from seven states and Canada.

California State's Semiannual Convention

Beautiful Hotel Miramar in Santa Monica, Cal., with a view of palm lined beaches, Santa Monica mountains and the blue Pacific will be headquarters for the twenty-ninth semiannual California State Numismatic Association convention November 2 to 5, 1961.

Conventioneers are assured the finest in exciting food and attractively appointed accommodations in a tropical garden setting where Wilshire Boulevard meets the sea. The hotel has four hundred guest rooms, bungalows and suites, nightly dancing, swimming in the hotel pool or the Pacific ocean, a new and impressive ten story addition.

The four-day convention, one of the West Coast's largest coin shows, will feature a two-session auction, bourse, numismatic forum, exhibits, banquet and special entertainment. Within a few minutes drive from convention headquarters are located some of Southern California's and Hollywood's finest entertainment and dining spots.

Hosts will be the Bay Cities Coin Club and the Culver City Coin Club, whose presidents, Ben Bieringer and Ernie Hood, are assistant general chairmen for the convention. A hard working convention committee is completing plans to make this show bigger and better. With over sixty coin clubs and thousands of coin collectors located in Southern California conventioners converging on Santa Monica this fall may establish new records. Karl Brainard, 3856 McLaughlin, Los Angeles 66, is General Chairman; Frank Wilson, Box 336, Reseda, Cal., Bourse Chairman; Pauline Ney, 817 Wilshire Blvd., Santa Monica, Exhibit Chairman.

Hotel reservations should be made direct, stating you will attend CSNA convention. The Miramar is twenty minutes drive from Los Angeles International Airport with direct bus service.

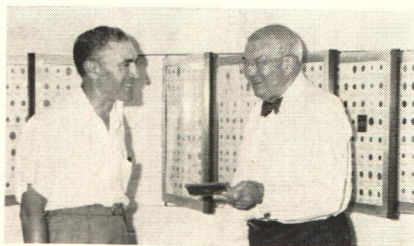

Jersey Penny 1960

Dear Mr. Bradfield:

May I amplify a little the note from my good friend Mr. Lauren Benson on the Jersey penny 1960 (July Numismatist, page 908). This piece does indeed commemorate Jersey's three hundredth anniversary, but I think it should be made plain that it commemorates the three hundredth anniversary of the association of Jersey with Charles II. I felt that Mr. Benson's note might give the idea that the island concerned had only been associated with Britain for three hundred years, whereas in fact it came to us as part of the possessions of William the Conqueror in 1066.

NEWPORT'S EXHIBITION

While preparing a portion of the Newport Balboa Savings and Loan Association's valuable numismatic exhibit, A. Kosoff, left, manager of the collection, and the firm's President, P. A. Palmer, discuss a new acquisition. In addition to the permanent display, other sections will be exhibited on a rotating basis. The current highlight is Civil War money. The institution is located in Newport Beach, Cal.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE ANNUAL CONVENTION OF THE AMERICAN NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION

The first business session of the 70th annual convention was called to order at 10 A.M. in the Biltmore Hotel, Atlanta, Georgia on August 17, 1961, with President O. H. Dodson in the chair.

The invocation was given by Rev. James H. Snell, Pastor of the Temple Methodist Church, Temple, Ga.

The President introduced Mr. George M. Todd, General Chairman of the convention. Mr. Todd welcomed the members to Atlanta and expressed the hope that the convention would be pleasant. He praised the work of his committees and called attention to some of the events planned for entertainment of the visitors.

The General Chairman then introduced Mr. Lee Evans, President of the Board of Aldermen of the City of Atlanta, who gave the address of welcome. Mr. Evans pointed out the recent rapid growth of both population and industry in Atlanta and mentioned some of the problems that faced the City Government and their efforts to solve them. He welcomed the Association to Atlanta and expressed the hope that the convention would be both pleasant and successful.

The President thanked Mr. Evans for his cordial welcome and assured him that the members and guests were most appreciative of the gracious Southern Hospitality that they were receiving.

The President requested that the members stand for a moment of silent tribute to the memory of those members who were deceased during the past year.

First Vice President C. C. Shroyer assumed the chair and called on the President for his annual report.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE A.N.A. PRESIDENT

General Comments:

In a recent magazine article this observation was made on the current American scene. "The thriving and expanding United States economy is providing an increasing abundance of the material things of life. Time for leisure and recreation has created a vast new public interest in cultural pursuits. It is estimated that 15 million Americans paint, sketch, or sculpt. American music lovers support 160 symphony orchestras plus 1500 community orchestras composed of 80 or more members. We have more than 700 performing opera groups across the land. Nearly 15,000 new books were published in the U.S.A. in 1960 and 10 million Americans belong to book clubs. The United States has nearly 1900 institutions for higher education."

This vast sweep of increasing cultural interests is reflected in the rapid growth of the A.N.A. In August, 1958 on my assumption of the duties of president, our A.N.A. membership stood at 13,382. Today our membership is 22,374, an increase in four years of 67%. In August, 1958 the A.N.A. had 295 affiliated local clubs. In the past four years a total of 405 new clubs have been organized, giving a total of 700 affiliated local clubs today. In August, 1958 the cash assets of the A.N.A. were $69,610.51. As of June 30 this year the cash assets are $107,237.54.

Accomplishments:

During the last year the A.N.A. has continued to move ahead in many widely varied areas of activity.

A.N.A. Building Fund – Within the last year, perhaps the most important single event for the future of the A.N.A. is the establishment of the A.N.A. Building Fund in a Trust Agency Agreement with National Bank of Detroit. The value of the Fund is now $27,300.00.

A.N.A. Charter – In May of this year a new A.N.A. Charter to replace the one expiring in 1962 was granted by the Federal Court of the District of Columbia. The new charter has two significant advantages over our first charter. In the first place it is perpetual, thus eliminating the necessity of a future president seeking a renewal in the year 2011 A.D. Secondly, the requirement that the principal office of the Association be maintained in Washington, D.C. – a requirement which in recent years has been a source of concern – has been eliminated.

Reprint of Selections from The Numismatist – The vigorous leadership of Mr. Charles Johnson, the expert assistance of Mr. Elston Bradfield, and advice from a fine committee of numismatic scholars resulted in the reprint of selected articles which have appeared in The Numismatist over the last seventy years.

In order to make these informative books available to every collector the Whitman Publishing Company, as a public service, published these volumes at cost. The success and the wide interest generated in this project is indicated in the fact that 22,000 copies of these reprints have been sold.

Reprint of "Introduction to Coin Collecting" – To assist beginning collectors the Executive Board has decided to reprint the pamphlet "Introduction to Coin Collecting." This material will be brought up to date and will first appear in The Numismatist; later the articles will be published in pamphlet form and sold at cost. Our editor, Mr. Elston Bradfield, will act as editor for the pamphlet while Mr. Glenn Smedley will serve in the capacity of executive director, coordinating the revision of the various articles and preparing the manuscript for the editor's approval.

The Dr. Judd Committee – The A.N.A. is undertaking a mature, long range study of the "Uncle Sam versus the Coin Collector" conflict. Your President has appointed a committee composed of distinguished members of our Association, many of whom are well known members of the bar, to study and submit recommendations in regard to revision of Federal laws and regulations applicable to the coinage. Dr. J. Hewitt Judd, Chairman of the Department of Ophthalmology at the University of Nebraska's College of Medicine, author of the standard work on U. S. Pattern Coins, and a past president of the A.N.A., is serving as Committee Chairman. Other members of the committee are:

James C. Wobensmith – Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
Harry Lessin – Norwalk, Connecticut
John S. Hill – Temple, Texas
Max Schwartz – New York, New York
Ellis Edlowitz – Washington, D. C.
John Pittman – Rochester, New York
Harold Klein – Hinsdale, Illinois
Herbert Bergen – Fullerton, California
William Philpott – Dallas, Texas
John Ford – New York, New York

This committee has been requested to recommend rewording of Federal law and Treasury Department regulations in order to:

1. Clarify present law and regulations for the mutual benefit of coin collectors, coin dealers, and Treasury Department officials and their field agents responsible for enforcement of laws covering coinage.
2. Provide bona fide coin collectors and numismatic dealers with a clear set of instructions covering what they may and may not legally import, purchase, sell, hold, and display.

No time limit has been placed on the committee's final report. Our new A.N.A. President, Mr. Tim Shroyer, has informed me that he considers the work of this committee to be of the utmost importance and that he will, as a matter of course, reappoint this committee in order that their study may continue without interruption. It is planned that the committee's final report and recommendation be reviewed and approved by the A.N.A. Executive Board and submitted to the Secretary of the Treasury with a request for favorable action.

Cooperation with the President's People-to-People Program — As we move through the second half of the twentieth century the greatest of our new frontiers is the challenge for worldwide cooperation among nations.

The A.N.A. has responded to this challenge through cooperation with President Kennedy's People-to-People program. To promote international friendship and goodwill among numismatists everywhere two important actions were taken this year.

Under the able leadership of our governor, Robert G. MacArthur, the campaign for books to be presented to the Philippine Numismatic and Antiquarian Society was successfully completed and a total of 90 publications, including many scarce items, were delivered to the Philippine Society on May 14. These books replace the library of the Philippine Society which was lost during the bombing of Manila in World War II. The presentation was made on behalf of the A.N.A. by representatives of the American Embassy.

The A.N.A. Executive Board also voted to present a set of the four reprint volumes of Selections from The Numismatist to national numismatic societies and important numismatic libraries in other lands. A total of 42 sets of our Reprints have been mailed to known national numismatic groups abroad. Fifty additional sets of these volumes are awaiting confirmations of correct address. The State Department, through the United States Information Agency, is cooperating in securing the names and addresses of societies unknown to us, and in making the book presentation on behalf of the A.N.A. to numismatic groups around the world.

In further support of the People-to-People program the Executive Board has elected to Honorary Life Membership a distinguished numismatic scholar of Yugoslavia, Dr. Rasilav Maric, Curator of the National Collection of Coins in the National Museum in Belgrade.

Under the supervision of Mr. Vernon Brown, Chairman of the State Department Numismatic People-to-People Committee, Mr. George Vandewende has mailed 20,000 copies of a four page A.N.A. brochure on coin collecting to a special list of collectors residing abroad.

These accomplishments of my administration, as modest as they have been, are not the work of one but the combined and devoted efforts of many.

Transition to the New Administration:

By establishing the practice of frequent presidential memos your president has attempted to keep the First Vice President, the Executive Board, and the entire A.N.A. official family fully informed in regard to problems and decisions. At executive board meetings ex-presidents have been invited to sit in and their advice has frequently been sought.

Every effort has been made to insure a smooth and efficient transition from my administration to that of our new President, Mr. Shroyer. Tim has seen all copies of my official correspondence within the last year. We have met several times for conferences in regard to future plans. All committee appointments within the last year have been made after consultation with Shroyer. Shroyer has participated actively in meetings which have been held to formulate preliminary plans for the Detroit 1962 joint A.N.A. and C.N.A. convention.

Recommendations:

"Organizations which assume that they are riding some automatic growth escalator invariably descend into stagnation."

With this thought in mind the following recommendations are submitted for consideration by the new Executive Board.

1. That the Association by-laws be changed to provide for an increase in the membership of the Board of Governors from 5 to 7 with the two additional governors to be first elected in 1963.

2. That the Executive Board study the desirability of changing the by-laws to adopt a combined system of geographical and "at large" representation for the Board of Governors. A plan providing for one governor to be elected by members residing in eastern states, one governor from the middle-western states, one from the far western states, and a fourth governor representing our members from the southern and southwestern states, with 3 additional governors elected by the membership at large would, in my opinion, create an Executive Board more representative of the entire membership and would stimulate greater interest in the A.N.A. in sections of the nation where members have not always been adequately represented.

3. That the by-laws be changed to provide for the appointment of the General Secretary by the Executive Board and that this change be made effective with the eventual retirement from office of the present General Secretary. I am pleased to report that our present General Secretary fully concurs in this recommendation.

4. That the employment of a full-time General Secretary and a full-time Editor of The Numismatist, with adequate compensation for the heavy responsibilities of these two offices, be planned for the immediate future and be made effective when in the judgment of the Executive Board, adequate funds are available.

5. We will never secure an adequate number of articles of the highest quality for The Numismatist until we are willing to pay for them. An author who devotes long hours to research and to writing, and produces a worthy article, is deserving of fair compensation. I recommend the appointment of an Editorial Advisory Committee composed of the Editor and Assistant Editor of The Numismatist and three other members appointed by the president. It is further recommended that this committee be authorized to determine compensation for each article published on the basis of a minimum of $10 per printed page to a maximum of $30 per printed page depending upon the quality of the article.

6. That a Building Fund Committee be appointed to explore every possibility of securing contributions to this worthy cause. The existence of the Fund should be widely publicized and contributions from clubs and from members encouraged. When the fund has reached a sum sufficiently large to justify detailed planning, a future Executive Board must select a geographical location and approve the architectural plans for the A.N.A. National Headquarters building.

7. There is an increasing pressure on the part of some newly admitted dealer members to force regional and state convention chairmen to eliminate all convention activities which conflict with the dealers' bourse. In some local and regional conventions this pressure to exclude all but commercial activity has resulted in elimination of the banquet, of sight-seeing trips, and other social functions, and of the education program. The A.N.A. should stand firm in resisting this type of pressure. The A.N.A. is a cultural and an educational organization. It is not a bazaar. If in the future the increasing number attending the convention poses a problem in hotel accommodations, it is recommended that the Executive Board give serious consideration to the elimination of the bourse at A.N.A. national conventions with increased emphasis placed on the exhibits of members and on social and educational activities.

The A.N.A. Professional Staff:

I could not complete this report without a final tribute to our highly competent professional staff, our General Secretary Lewis Reagan, our Editor Elston Bradfield, and our Advertising Manager S. W. Freeman. In addition to the daily requirement of earning a living and supporting a family these men devote long extra hours to keep the A.N.A. functioning. For their loyalty and keen enthusiasm they deserve the gratitude of our membership.

Conclusion:

The A.N.A. membership is a cross-section of America.

The A.N.A. is full of adventurous and searching spirits who travel great distances to attend conventions, who seek more and more knowledge of their coins and through this knowledge gain a greater understanding of history and of contemporary foreign cultures.

The A.N.A. is full of beginning collectors who concentrate on mistakes in coins and on coins hidden in paper rolls. But remember, most of us when first interested in coins exhibited the same lack of focus, the same lack of depth, which is characteristic of many new collectors today. However, these new members are our greatest asset; growing in numismatic knowledge they will become the main spring of the Association tomorrow.

The A.N.A. is the moral, civic, and ethical leader in the world of numismatics. We have a high destiny, but the A.N.A. can rise no higher than those who administer the needs of the organization and set the course for the future.

Give us men who are willing to make their life count in numismatics.

It was moved and carried that the Report of the President be accepted with thanks. President Dodson resumed the chair.

The President announced the appointment of convention committees, as follows:

Credentials: J. P. "Doc" DePass, Chairman, F. D. Hughes

Audit: Eldridge G. Jones

Resolutions: Max M. Schwartz, Chairman, George Hatie, John H. Morris, Jr., Jack Koch, Ellis Edlowitz

Exhibit Awards: Herbert M. Bergen, Chairman, William N. Worth, Harry Lessin

Election: Jack Ogilvie

The President called for the report of the Credentials Committee.

REPORT OF THE CREDENTIALS COMMITTEE

The Committee has inspected the official register and finds that there is more than the minimum number of members registered to constitute a quorum. The Committee therefore declares that this assembly is empowered to transact such business as may come before the convention.

J. P. DEPASS, Chairman
F. D. HUGHES

It was moved and carried that the report of the Credentials Committee be accepted.

The financial reports of the General Secretary, Advertising Manager, and the Treasurer are included in the report of the Auditor, as follows:

REPORT OF CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

The Executive Board, American Numismatic Association:

We have examined the accompanying statement of cash, investments and deposits of American Numismatic Association at June 30, 1961 and the related statements of cash receipts and disbursements for the year then ended.

The accounting records of American Numismatic Association are maintained and the statements mentioned above are prepared on a basis of cash receipts and cash disbursements; therefore, amounts receivable for membership dues, advertising and other income are not recorded in the accounts until payment is received and, similarly, liabilities for expense and capital items are not recorded in the accounts until payment is made. Also, it is the policy of the Association that capital expenditures, e.g., equipment and additions to the coin collection, are not recorded as assets.

Our examination, the scope of which is outlined below, was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

SCOPE OF EXAMINATION

Our examination of the cash transactions included the following:

- (1) Cash balances in banks as confirmed directly to us by depositaries were reconciled with amounts shown in the accounting records of the Association. Cash on hand was counted.
- (2) Receipts recorded in the accounting records were traced to deposits on the bank statements. Receipts for membership dues were tested in total by comparing recorded receipts for the year with an estimate of such receipts determined by reference to the membership roster. Advertising receipts were tested by comparing recorded receipts with amounts computed by reference to advertisements appearing in "The Numismatist" and with published advertising rates. Amounts shown in memorandum records as unpaid for advertising were tested by correspondence with selected advertisers. Subscription receipts were tested by tracing individual receipts to subscription expiration cards. Net proceeds from the 1960 convention were traced to the report submitted by the Convention Committee.
- (3) Tests were made of cash disbursements by reference to vouchers and other supporting data. Canceled checks returned by the banks were examined and compared with the cash disbursement records.

U. S. government savings bonds in the Operating Fund were inspected by us. Transactions for the year were analyzed and traced to related entries on the bank statements. Interest receivable during the year on government bonds was computed and traced to deposits shown on the bank statements.

The cash balance and U. S. government bonds in the Building Fund account were confirmed by direct correspondence with the trustee.

Deposits with U. S. Post Office Department and Trans World Airlines, Inc. were confirmed by direct correspondence.

OPINION OF CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

Based on our examination, as previously outlined under the caption "Scope of Examination", in our opinion the accompanying statements present fairly the cash, investments and deposits of American Numismatic Association at June 30, 1961 and the cash receipts and disbursements for the year then ended and are prepared on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

It was moved and carried that the Report of the General Secretary be accepted.

The President called attention to the fact that the reports of the Second Vice President, Editor, Librarian, Visual Education Committee, Curator of Coins, Curator of Medals were included in the mimeographed reports distributed by the General Secretary.

REPORT OF THE SECOND VICE PRESIDENT

I have had the honor and privilege of being second vice president of the A.N.A. for four years. I appreciate the opportunity I have had to serve in this capacity.

I want to sincerely thank all the A.N.A. club representatives who have helped me with their letters and club reports during the past years.

During the past fiscal year as second vice president, I have issued and published the A.N.A. Officers Bulletin quarterly, Volume X, numbers 1, 2, 3, 4. Copies of these were mailed to all A.N.A. club representatives. Extra copies are available in the office of the Secretary.

Issue number I "Suggestions for Organizing a Coin Club" was an improved rewrite of a popular earlier bulletin. This has been so well received that several thousand copies have been mailed. During one week alone I mailed more than sixty letters and extra copies of this bulletin in answer to requests from individuals desiring to start new clubs.

Issue number II contained articles on how to report club news for publication in the "Numismatist" and on the "People to People Coin Program."

Issue number III gave Club activities as obtained from the regular "Interim Reports." I want to thank again all those who made this excellent issue possible.

Bulletin number IV entitled "Suggestions for Holding Conventions" has proven very popular and is a good addition to any club's library.

I have helped organize many local and state clubs during the past year and want to take this opportunity to wish every one of them success in the years to come.

I wish to invite every local, state and regional club, not now a member of the A.N.A. to join this organization and to submit the name of one of their outstanding members as the A.N.A. club representative. Most clubs are now members but a concentrated effort should be made to increase this percentage.

I want to thank the club representatives for their continued assistance which has made this past fiscal year the greatest in new membership in the history of the A.N.A. Their efforts in obtaining new members deserve the recognition of the entire association.

The second vice president wishes to thank the President and General Secretary for their cooperation and to pass on to my successor, Herb Bergen, the wish that he will have this same cooperation from the officers and club representatives and the knowledge that he is working with some of the best members of the world's finest hobby.

Respectfully submitted,

MATT ROTHERT, Second vice president

EDITOR'S REPORT

The steady climb in American Numismatic Association membership and the growth of coin collecting in general are reflected in the number of copies of The Numismatist printed each month. Currently this is over twenty-eight thousand. Of these, more than twenty-three thousand go to members, two thousand to library, museum and individual non-member subscribers, and three thousand to newsstand distribution. About two hundred sales of single copies are made each month by the General Secretary's office, which also tries to keep a small backlog of the current year's magazines for new members. We try to maintain an equal division of editorial matter and advertisements and a minimum of one hundred forty-four pages in each issue.

Detailing the contents of The Numismatist for the last fiscal year is about on a par with "carrying coals to Newcastle." Having read it, you are familiar with its contents. Nothing can be added to, changed, or eliminated from a printed record such as a magazine, which is its own witness. We can say the articles have been varied, however, to appeal to as many different tastes as possible.

A large supply of quality papers is on hand, although gaps exist in the subjects covered. We could wish that a greater proportion were original works of about two thousand words length and that more dealt with American numismatics; nonserial stories on U.S. coins, paper money, medals and tokens are of most interest to Numismatist readers. Some manuscripts suitable of publication are always found among annual convention papers and this year's listing appears to be no exception.

We are grateful to our contributors, whether regular or occasional, who serve our Association. Other than the satisfaction that comes with helping fellow collectors, their recompense is the possibility of receiving a Heath Literary award and the approbation of their colleagues. Sometimes the latter is inadvertently overlooked, but do your part to keep it from happening by sending the author a word of commendation when you find an article that pleases you. If he is a member of your coin club, see that other members are told of his accomplishment. Let's give these men and women public recognition.

Many changes have occurred in the field of American numismatics in the last few years, not the least of which is an increasing number of outlets for coin collector news and information. To the old-line occasional, quarterly and monthly periodicals have been added twice-a-month and weekly newspapers. All are intended to meet different requirements of the ever-strengthening ranks of American collectors and do not affect the conservative aims and purposes of The Numismatist. We say this despite the comment by one of our friends and correspondents who wrote "I note an improvement in The Numismatist lately, which may be due to the coin newspapers keeping you on your toes." We thank the writer but state that a part time Editor of a monthly publication would be a little foolhardy, indeed, to "compete" for spot news or other fast-breaking features. Our basic thought is to present our readers with accurate, well written and original articles of permanent numismatic value, numismatic news and stories of historic as well as current interest, official American Numismatic Association announcements and reports, and other items of national importance. (Even so, hardly a month goes by without some "firsts" appearing in The Numismatist. Perhaps you might be amazed how many there are!)

Much of the Editor's time this year was given over to the four volumes of A.N.A. reprint books entitled Selections from The Numismatist. Two were on U.S. coins, paper money, medals and tokens; one on ancient and medieval coinages; and one on modern foreign currencies. Each volume was about three hundred twenty pages long, of similar format and binding, designed to retail for $3.75. These reprints were made possible by the devotion and unselfishness of A.N.A. committeemen appointed after the Portland, Ore., convention. To your editor fell the responsibility of editing all the books; the final choice of articles to be published; decisions as to typography, uniform headings, format and binding; the writing of introductory matter and the preparation of all fillers; copy reading; proofreading; etc. Richard S. Yeoman was most helpful in this activity.

The appreciation of the Editor goes to Glenn B. Smedley, Assistant to the Editor, for the efficient manner in which he handled club news and related correspondence; wrote the feature "Numismatic Vignettes" and occasional book reviews; willingly undertook such assignments as the Editor gave him from time to time.

The Editor acknowledges with thanks the close cooperation so essential between his post and the Advertising Manager, McCormick-Armstrong Company and all officers and governors of the American Numismatic Association. He also expresses his appreciation for the continued patience and understanding of his wife, Jean.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF THE EDWARD T. NEWELL VISUAL EDUCATION COMMITTEE FOR 1960-1961

Your Visual Education Committee is pleased to report that in the fiscal year 1960-61 there were 362 slide set showings. This is our highest total to date. With the addition of several new slide sets, we hope that even more clubs will use this visual means of acquiring and disseminating knowledge of our hobby. The number of showings this year compares with the last five years as follows:

1955-56	307 showings	1958-59	315 showings
1956-57	243 showings	1959-60	286 showings
1957-58	305 showings	1960-61	362 showings

During the six-month period January through June, 1961, there were 215 slide set showings which is the highest number for any six-month period since the inauguration of the visual education program. The previous high for a six-month period was in 1955 when 179 slide sets were shown.

A review of the data also indicates that the five most popular slide sets were:

#17 "Coins with Special Significance"	49 showings
#1 "Coins of Colonial America"	32 showings
#3 "U. S. Types, Half Cents to Twenty Cents"	31 showings
#4 "U. S. Types, Quarters to Silver Dollars"	31 showings
#2 "Types of Commemorative Half Dollars"	29 showings

Clubs in the following states used the sets most:

California	46 showings	Pennsylvania	26 showings
Illinois	35 showings	Texas	26 showings

Your Committee wishes to congratulate Custodian of Slides Michael Dolnick for the excellent manner in which he has handled requests for slides. In addition, thanks are due him for his friendly cooperation and helpful advice at all times.

As mentioned in last year's report, a sound tape to accompany slide set #10, "Confederate States of America Currency," is available as an alternate method of presenting the lecture notes for this slide set. The tape was very well received by the eight clubs who used it and we expect this set to be more in demand in the fall of this 100th anniversary year of the War between the States.

Slide set #23, "Coins and Early Christianity," 38 slides, has been finished and is ready for use by member clubs. The lecture notes were skillfully prepared by Committee Member Dr. John Lhotka, Jr. The coins shown and described are from his collection and from the collection of The American Numismatic Society. Coins of the Bible are always of interest to many collectors and this set should prove to be very popular. It is also planned to prepare a sound tape to accompany this set as an alternate method of presenting the lecture notes.

The first set of slides for Part I and Part II of "Crowns and Minor Commemorative Coins of the 19th and 20th Centuries - Western Hemisphere" and the lecture notes have been completed by Committee Member John Dunn. Part I includes North America (except U.S.A.), Central America and the West Indies. Part II is devoted entirely to South America. These two slide series embody the ideas of a number of our Latin American-ANA members and should be extremely interesting to all collectors of Latin American coins. Should these two slide sets be received as enthusiastically as we believe they should, it is planned to expand this field to cover the crowns and minor commemoratives of Asia, Africa, Australia and Europe. Part I and Part II - Western Hemisphere - should be available to ANA member clubs in September, at no fees other than transportation costs, through Custodian of Slides Michael Dolnick. This same arrangement applies to all other 23 slide sets which are available to ANA member clubs.

Work is continuing on the slide set of Korean coins, which has been in preparation for some time. It is hoped that this set can be completed soon. Committee Member Jack Koch has been working on a revision of the lecture accompanying slide set #2, "Types of Commemorative Half Dollars." In addition, he is preparing a tape recorded commentary similar to the one he prepared for use with slide set #10, "Confederate States of America Currency."

During the past year two extra copies were made of slide set #17, "Coins of Special Significance, 560 B.C. - 1893," and #15, "U. S. Paper Money 1861-1923, Illustrated by $5 Notes." Also, three extra copies of slide set #2, "Types of Commemorative Half Dollars," were photographed in color to supplement the plastic slides already in use.

As new slide sets are prepared and duplicates of earlier slide sets are made, it is planned to mount the photographs in metal mounts with a snap-on top and a built-in frame. The thin cover glass used with this type of mount should prove to be less breakable in transit. However, should the glass become broken, it should be possible to use the same slide and mount and easily replace the glass whereas the film in taped glass is seldom recoverable when the glass is broken.

Mr. Cyrus H. Phillips, ANA #10100, reports that the set of slides prepared for and on permanent loan to the Bank of America in California is still being used in talks entitled "Historical Background of American Coinage." This program, given before school and civic groups, is sponsored by the Bank of America. During the fiscal year July 1, 1960 through June 30, 1961, this program was given for the following groups:

Type of Group	Number of Showings	Total in Audience
Elementary and Jr. High Schools	61	15,951
Service Clubs	40	2,071
Colleges	1	135
Miscellaneous, incl. coin clubs	2	150
Grand Total Audience		18,307

Mr. E. P. McRitchie, Vice President of the Bank of America, has asked that your Committee Chairman express to the American Numismatic Association "sincere thanks for the cooperation and valuable assistance rendered the program."

The financial report of the Committee is attached.

REPORT OF THE A.N.A. CURATOR OF MEDALS, 1961

The A.N.A. Collection of Medals consists of a total of 258 items. This number represents 13 miscellaneous medals on loan in the Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D. C., a set of 35 Admiral Vernon Medals on display in the Joslyn Museum, Omaha, Nebraska, and 210 medals recently forwarded to the newly appointed Curator and temporarily stored in National Bank of Detroit.

The A.N.A. Medal Collection is a modest one. Prior to 1957 the Association had not formed a medal collection. In this year Mrs. Dwight P. Spencer donated to the A.N.A. her late husband's collection of medals including a complete collection of pieces issued by the Society of Medalists. Future plans provide for maintaining up-to-date the Society of Medalists' issues, adding a representative collection of presidential medals and the gradual acquisition of a modest but representative collection of contemporary medals issued abroad.

An inventory of the current collection has been submitted to the office of the General Secretary.

Respectfully submitted,

O. H. DODSON, Curator

It was moved and carried that the above reports be accepted.

The General Secretary announced communications of greetings and best wishes from Past Presidents Loyd B. Gettys, V. Leon Belt, Dr. J. Hewitt Judd, and from Dr. John H. Lhotka, Jr., Dr. V. Clain-Stefanelli, William A. Philpott, Jr., Joseph Silverman, Earl Glen Whitehead, Karl Brainard, Roy William Farman (of Victoria, Australia), Past President Martin Kortjohn, Past President J. Douglas Ferguson, Col. James W. Curtis and Roy Hill.

The President invited Mr. Ralph Cleaver, President of the Zebulon Pike Coin Club of Colorado Springs, to come forward and describe the building in Colorado Springs that had been suggested as the Headquarters Building for the Association. Mr. Cleaver described the building, and presented pictures and letters with further details.

Mr. Cleaver said he was well aware of the fact that the purchase of a building would have to wait until funds were available, but suggested that a substantial increase in the Building Fund would result if each member of a local club would contribute $1. He presented a check for $208, representing such a contribution from each of the members of the Zebulon Pike Coin Club of Colorado Springs.

The President thanked the Zebulon Pike Coin Club for its generous gift and for the building suggestion. Further contributions to the Building Fund were received from Edwin W. Williams (A.N.A. No. 832) of $100 and from James Kelly of $220, representing the selling price of two medals, donated by the Presidential Arts Inc., and purchased at the auction by George L. Maples (A.N.A. No. 42176) of Fort Walton Beach, Fla.

After some announcements, the meeting was adjourned.

FRIDAY SESSION

The meeting on Friday, August 18, was not a business session but was devoted to awards of medals, plaques, certificates, as follows:

FARRAN ZERBE AWARD

This award is made annually to a member of the Association in recognition of distinguished service and is regarded as the highest honor that the Association can award.

The Farran Zerbe award was established in 1951, at the suggestion of Louis S. Werner, and set up as a memorial to the late Farran Zerbe who was a devoted and loyal member of the Association for many years. The award is intended to stimulate and encourage interest in the welfare of the Association and to give public recognition to outstanding service.

This award was made to Past President M. Vernon Sheldon in 1951, to Mrs. June Pond, then a member of the Board of Governors, in 1952, to the late Col. Joseph Moss, Past President, in 1953, to General Secretary Lewis M. Reagan in 1954, to Past President J. Hewitt Judd in 1955, to Richard S. Yeoman in 1956, Burton Saxton in 1957, Louis S. Werner in 1958, Glenn B. Smedley in 1959.

The award for 1960 was made to Dr. John F. Lhotka, Jr., Associate Professor of Anatomy in the Medical College of the University of Oklahoma at Oklahoma City, Okla. Dr. Lhotka has contributed numerous articles to The Numismatist on Roman and Byzantine coinage and a current work on Survey of Medieval Iberian Coinages, written jointly with P. K. Anderson. He has received numerous Heath Literary awards, and in 1954 received the Edward T. Newell award for outstanding work in the field of ancient coinage. Dr. Lhotka is a numismatic scholar of the highest type and has served the Association with great distinction.

SATURDAY SESSION

The final business session of the convention was called to order at 10 a.m. by President Dodson.

After some announcements the President called on Elston G. Bradfield, Editor of The Numismatist to present the report of the Convention Papers Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

ELSTON G. BRADFELD, Editor

It was moved and carried that the report be accepted with thanks.

The President then called on Max M. Schwartz, Chairman of the Resolutions Committee to present the report of that committee.

RESOLUTION I

Having been the fortunate recipients of extremely interesting and informative reports rendered to this Convention by:

Adm. O. H. Dodson, President;
C. C. Shroyer, First Vice President;
Matt H. Rothert, Second Vice President;
Lewis M. Reagan, General Secretary; and Harold R. Klein, Treasurer

all of which are indicative of work well done on their part and directly connected with the splendid progress of the Association under their guidance during the past year, we are hereby

RESOLVED that said reports be accepted with the sincere thanks of the Association.

It was moved and carried that this Resolution be adopted.

RESOLUTION II

As a small measure of our recognition of their unceasing efforts in our behalf, as exemplified in part by the contents of their reports, this Association in convention duly assembled does hereby RESOLVE that its thanks and gratitude be extended to the officers and members of the Board of Governors, P. K. Anderson, Col. James W. Curtis, Robert G. McArthur, John J. Pittman and Arthur Sipe; our Editor, Elston G. Bradfield; our Advertising Manager, S. W. Freeman; our Librarian, John J. Gabarron; our Historian, Jack W. Ogilvie; our Curator, Dr. V. Clain-Steffanelli; the Custodian of Slides, Michael M. Dolnick; the Assistant to the General Secretary, Don Sherer; the Assistant to the Editor, Glenn B. Smedley; our Sergeant-at-Arms, Louis S. Werner, and our Legal Counsel, Harry Lessin, for their efficient performance of their burdensome tasks during the past year.

It was moved and carried that this Resolution be adopted.

RESOLUTION III

Since we will long remember the pleasure derived from the instructive discourses delivered at our Educational Program, we deem it eminently fit that it be

RESOLVED that our thanks be conveyed in appropriate manner to Mrs. Russell Cunningham, Jr., Grover C. Criswell, Jr., Herbert M. Bergen and Eric P. Newman, as well as to the Moderator, Glenn B. Smedley.

It was moved and carried that this Resolution be adopted.

RESOLUTION IV

Having enjoyed the successful fruits of their labors which in some cases were started as far back as four years ago, before we soon part, we deem it appropriate that we now

RESOLVE that this Association officially signify its thanks to George M. Todd, the General Chairman of our 70th Annual Convention, and those who so ably and untiringly assisted him: Annie Harrison, as Secretary; John W. Teepell, as Treasurer; Margaret C. McAuley, as Publicity Director; Philip S. Reed and his assistants in Exhibits Committee; Leroy D. Martin and his assistants on the Registration Committee; Mrs. Mamie Davis and her assistants in charge of Ladies Activities; Mrs. L. D. Martin and her assistants who arranged the tours; Mrs. Annette Cook and her assistants in charge of the Hospitality Room; L. A. Cook and his assistants in charge of Security; Edwin Harrison and his assistant in charge of Badges; Robert J. Rooks and his assistants in charge of the Bourse; Blaise J. Dantone for his gracious invitation extended in 1957, which we are glad we accepted; and last but not least to Lois Cole and her assistants for arrangements for the Banquet we are certain we will enjoy this evening.

It was moved and carried that this Resolution be adopted.

RESOLUTION V

RESOLVED that we signify by the adoption of this resolution our sincere thanks to the officers and members, individually and collectively, of Atlanta Coin Club, DeKalb Coin Club, Marietta Coin Club, Button Gwinnett Coin Club and Athens Coin Club for their aid in making this a long-to-be-remembered happy convention.

It was moved and carried that this Resolution be adopted.

RESOLUTION VI

We are grateful for the assistance given us through publicity in their respective media by WSB-TV and WSB Radio; WLW-A TV and WAGA-TV; The Atlanta Journal and The Atlanta Constitution, Coin World, Numismatic News, Numismatic Times and Trends, Coin Press Magazine and Numismatic Scrapbook Magazine, and in appreciation thereof, it is hereby

RESOLVED that we extend to them our sincere thanks and that they be advised thereof by our General Secretary.

It was moved and carried that this Resolution be adopted.

RESOLUTION VII

In appreciation of the graciousness of the hospitality shown us, we are

RESOLVED that the thanks of the Association be extended to the officers and employees of the Atlanta Biltmore Hotel; and Dahlonga-Lumpkin County Chamber of Commerce and in particular Mrs. Madeleine Anthony; and this be imparted to them by our General Secretary.

It was moved and carried that this Resolution be adopted.

MAX M. SCHWARTZ, New York, N. Y., Chairman
JOHN H. MORRIS, JR., Homewood, Alabama
JACK P. KOCH, Moses Lake, Washington
GEORGE D. HATIE, Detroit, Michigan
ELLIS EDLOWITZ, Washington, D. C.

The President announced that invitations for future conventions would be received as the following were presented:

The President announced that the 1962 convention would be held in Detroit and invited all members and their guests to attend.

The President announced that the 1963 convention would be held in Denver.

Mr. Robert T. McNamara, who had been appointed General Chairman for the 1964 convention in Cleveland, announced that plans were being made for an outstanding convention in that City.

Mr. A. I. Martin, speaking for the Greater Houston Coin Club and the Texas State Numismatic Association, invited the Association to hold its 1965 convention in Houston.

Mr. Ray Lefman extended an invitation of the Heart of America Numismatic Association to the Association to hold its 1965 convention in Kansas City, Missouri.

Mr. A. Kosoff extended the invitation of the Pacific Coast Numismatic Association to hold the 1965 convention in San Francisco.

Mr. R. L. Hendershott, speaking for the Miami Coin Club and the Florida United Numismatists (the State organization), extended an invitation to hold the 1966 convention in Miami.

Don Sherer extended the invitation of the Phoenix Coin Club to hold the 1966 convention in Phoenix, Arizona.

Eldridge G. Jones extended the invitation of the Washington Numismatic Society to hold the 1967 convention in Washington, D. C.

The President thanked those who had presented invitations and said that they would be referred to the Executive Board for consideration.

The President called on Jack W. Ogilvie to present the report of the Election Committee.

REPORT OF THE ELECTION COMMITTEE

At the Boston convention in 1960 the By-Laws were amended to provide for tabulation of election ballots by an independent auditing firm instead of the previous method of tabulation by an election committee at the convention. In accordance with this action, the ballots this year were addressed to the firm of Arthur Young & Co., Certified Public Accountants, Wichita, Kansas. This firm has also performed the annual audit for the Association for the past several years.

The following is the report of that firm with respect to the tabulation:

The Executive Board American Numismatic Association:

Pursuant to your instructions we have tabulated the ballots for the 1961 election of officers for the American Numismatic Association.

The circumstances under which our tabulation was conducted are summarized as follows:

Ballots were mailed to members under the supervision of the General Secretary. The ballots were addressed in such a manner that they were returned directly to Arthur Young & Company by the U. S. Post Office Department and were maintained under our control throughout the tabulation. We were instructed by the executive board to make no tabulation of uncontested offices except to ascertain that at least one vote was cast for each uncontested candidate for office. Ballots tabulated included all ballots received in our office by August 1, 1961.

The results of our tabulation are as follows:

Uncontested candidates for whom at least one vote was cast:

For president, C. C. Shroyer
For first vice president, P. K. Anderson
For second vice president, Herbert M. Bergen
For general secretary, Lewis M. Reagan

Votes for candidates were cast as follows:

For treasurer —

Harold R. Klein	5,642	Eldridge G. Jones	3,702
-----------------------	-------	-------------------------	-------

For the board of governors —

John J. Pittman	4,428	Earl Glen Whitehead	2,506
Arthur Sipe	4,268	William N. Worth	2,502
Robert G. McArthur	4,156	Elmer G. Nelson	2,195
Matt H. Rothert	3,757	Ray O. Lefman	1,919
Charles M. Johnson	3,584	E. Ward Russell	1,793
Leo G. Terry	3,341	Raymond Gallo	1,708
Dr. C. A. Bolt	3,178	Ben Stocker	1,695
Harold H. Berk	2,743	Vernon L. Oblisk	1,468

Ballots tabulated totaled 9,719.

ARTHUR YOUNG & COMPANY

August 3, 1961

In accordance with the report of the tabulation, the election committee now declares that the following have been elected:

President — C. C. Shroyer

First Vice President — P. K. Anderson

Second Vice President — Herbert M. Bergen

General Secretary — Lewis M. Reagan

Treasurer — Harold R. Klein

The Board of Governors —

John J. Pittman

Arthur Sipe

Robert G. McArthur

Matt H. Rothert

Charles M. Johnson

Respectfully submitted,

JACK W. OGILVIE, Chairman

It was moved and carried that the report be accepted.

The president invited Past-President Leonel C. Panosh to install the newly elected officers, following which President C. C. Shroyer assumed the chair.

President Shroyer called for any unfinished or new business, and hearing none entertained a motion for adjournment. It was moved and carried that the convention be adjourned.

VALUE ME AS YOU PLEASE

Some words are easily defined — some are not. "Cost" is fairly definite as the amount paid for anything that we have acquired, whether payment was in dollars, pounds, pesos, labor of the body or mind, or in suffering and endurance. Likewise, "price" is that which we are asked or required to pay for something; and again payment may be in money, services or less tangible things.

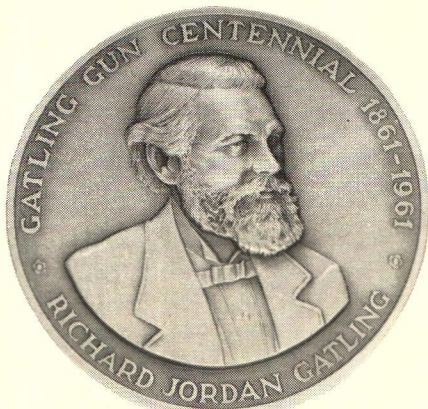

But how do you define "value" in terms which have the same meaning to all? Certainly the words "cost" and "price" and "value" are far from being synonymous. To illustrate: I had a 1947 maple leaf Canadian dollar which was given to me at the time of issue, hence the cost to me was $0. Catalogs now list it at about $75, so there is a price established. But I traded it to a dealer for three Canadian obsolete bank notes which he had priced at $45. Both of us are happy with the trade, because we value what we got higher than what we gave up.

If you want to buy an 1877 Indian cent, for example, you can look in a book or catalog and find the approximate price you'll be asked for it. This price is based, in general, on how those who have this coin value it. However, while you may want (value) such a coin enough to pay the price, I don't want one, so the price is greater than the value, from my viewpoint.

Even more enigmatic are the values of things — numismatic or otherwise — which have no established approximate prices. Obviously in this class are many old medals and tokens, practically all obsolete bank notes, and most out-of-print books. Then there are those things which are truly unique, or which are so rare as to be obtainable very infrequently. What is the value of such a thing — how much is it worth?

I have quit worrying about finding an answer from anyone else, and ask myself two questions. First, do I have money (or its equivalent) with which to pay the price? If the answer is "yes," then the decision must be based on my own desire for the acquisition — what its value is to me. Perhaps the motto on the old Higley threepence was good advice — "Value me as you please," with emphasis on the word "you." Don't worry about what others think if you are pleased. — GLENN B. SMEDLEY

The A.N.A. and Its Presidents

DR. JOHN M. HENDERSON

Eighth President, 1910 and 1911

By

JACK W. OGILVIE, LM 93, HISTORIAN

John M. Henderson, D.D.S. of Columbus, Ohio, was the first man since William Jerrems to hold the office of President whose talents did not include writing. What the Doctor lacked as an author, he made up in fraternal leadership, an avid interest in the progress of the Association and a drive for accomplishments. Under such effective command, the organization passed several milestones during his tenure as eighth President.

John Milford Henderson was born in Hamilton County, Ohio, on April 20, 1870. His mother came from English barony and his father was a veteran of the Civil War. He received his education and dental degree in Columbus and followed his profession there for fifty years. In 1893 he married Cora Dell Bailey who is still a well-known personality in numismatic circles. Dr. Henderson joined the A.N.A. in August, 1903, as Number 533 and Mrs. Henderson became Number 1245 in 1909. This charming couple made their first appearance at the 1904 St. Louis convention and took a very active part in nearly every meeting thereafter until 1941. They hold the record of attending more A.N.A. conventions than any other couple with twenty-nine to their credit. Mrs. Henderson has attended several more since that date.

Dr. Henderson, then Secretary of the Columbus Numismatic Society, was influential in bringing the 1907 convention to his home town. He and Henri Buck were hosts while hostess honors went to Mrs. Henderson. The Hendersons were so well remembered that, at the next affair held in Philadelphia in 1908, he was elected First Vice President and thus began his duties in the official circle.

When Zerbe declined the Presidency in 1909, Frank Higgins, an assistant editor of The Numismatist and Vice President Henderson were nominated to fill the vacancy. Spirited competition arose for the high office when certain Manhattan members waged a vigorous campaign to elect their candidate Higgins, then President of the New York Numismatic Club. Western groups were strongly behind the Ohio dentist. The membership was bombarded with circulars in behalf of Higgins, while a full page ad supporting Henderson appeared in the July Numismatist, authored and paid for by Frank Duffield. Zerbe, in an editorial, refused to take sides. The issues waxed furiously until election time at the Montreal convention. Every gathering at this historic affair buzzed with intrigue. The proxy vote, which was procedure at that time, could swing the election to either candidate. Suddenly a rumor started that ex-President Wright had the two candidates in a closed-door conference. Then silence! When the trio emerged, smiling, Dr. Wright revealed what he had informed the two that Henderson's backers held more than enough proxies to elect him. This proved to be a fact when the ballots were counted, then the assembly unanimously elected Dr. John M. Henderson eighth President. The adversaries shook hands, a la Nixon-Kennedy, and re-united their efforts for the Association.

When Dr. Henderson began his administration in January of 1910, William W. C. Wilson was First Vice President; Burton Saxton, Second Vice President; William F. Dunham, Chairman of the Board, and J. de Lagerberg replaced Henry Chapman on the Board. In the President's message he urged that a change be made in the election bylaw to permit voting by mail ballot, thus eliminating the proxy system which, ironically, had elected him. This system was adopted prior to the 1911 election.

Early in 1910, government agents confiscated a shipment of pattern coins owned by John W. Haseltine. This Philadelphia dealer had previously sold two $50 gold pattern pieces to William Woodin for $10,000. These unique 1877 patterns were long believed to have been melted by the mint and the transaction seemed to spur the agents into action against Haseltine. A lengthy article by Zerbe in defense of the dealer appeared in the July Numismatist. The action was protested so vigorously by President Henderson, the A.N.A. and other groups that eventually the government switched its position and in October returned the seized coins. Shortly thereafter Mr. Woodin traded the $50 patterns back to the Mint for a large number of other pattern pieces. The two famous gold coins are presently in the Mint collection in the Smithsonian Institution.

The 1910 convention was held in New York City from September 6 to 10, with headquarters in the new American Numismatic Society building. The Society and the New York Numismatic Club were co-hosts and under the sponsorship of the three groups, attendance broke all records. A glowing tribute was paid to Dr. George F. Heath in a poem by ex-President Heaton. Frank Higgins unveiled a portrait of the founder of the A.N.A. and arranged for it to be placed in the A.N.S. building. A memorial medal in his honor was authorized, to be designed and struck in 1911.

A decision was made that the Association attempt to publish The Numismatist and the annual dues were raised in anticipation of this move. A committee composed of Saxton, Wood and Duffield were successful in publishing the Year Book of 1910, the only such volume ever issued by the organization. Another committee, on Uniform Standards for Grading Coins, which started functioning back in 1904, still could not agree. This age-old problem is still with us and the grandsons of that committee are still undecided whether it is A.U. or B.U.

Election results were: Dr. Henderson, reelected President; Burton Saxton, First Vice President; that grand old man from Canada, Robert W. McLachlan, Second Vice President; George L. Tilden, General Secretary, and H. O. Granberg, Chairman of the Board. Those attending the 1910 convention never got to see themselves. The photographer assigned to take the official pictures "skiddood" with the negatives as well as quite a number of dollars — none rare — from the members (see photo).

Shortly after the convention a benefactor appeared just when the organization needed one the most. William W. C. Wilson of Montreal, a past Vice President, met with Zerbe and Wood to arrange for the purchase of The Numismatist from Zerbe. He then presented the publication and all of its assets to the A.N.A. as a gift. The transition was completed with the January, 1911, issue. Albert R. Frey was appointed Editor-in-chief with Edgar Adams and George H. Blake named assistants, while Tilden was made Business Manager. President Henderson praised the capabilities of these men and held high hopes for the magazine, stating "The Numismatist will at once become the representative numismatic publication in America." A year later his prediction was fulfilled.

It had been the goal of administrative officers for the previous several years to incorporate the organization and committees had studied the idea.

This picture of a group of the 1910 conventioners came to light recently in the mementoes of B. Max Mehl, who seemingly caught up with the missing photographer. The first of forty-three conventions that Max attended, he is standing directly behind the center lady. To her right are Mrs. Cora Henderson and President Henderson. He seems to enjoy posing beside his former rival, Frank Higgins, holding the bowler. At the extreme left is Dr. B. P. Wright and third from left is Frank Duffield. In the second row the white moustached gentleman is R. W. McLachlan; to his left, Henry O. Granberg and Edgar H. Adams. In the extreme rear, T. E. Leon is second, Howard Newcomb fourth. The face of Howland Wood is partly hidden. Perhaps Julius Gutttag and Frank Liveright might identify themselves. Can you name any of the others?

The President and Congressman William A. Ashbrook, a Board member, together with other influential members, decided that instead of incorporating under state laws, to reach for national stature by seeking a Federal Charter. The group drew up the petition which was introduced in Congress by Ashbrook on June 19, 1911. Thus the ground work was started and by August 18, the bill was out of committee and on the House calendar. In his address at the 1911 Chicago convention, the President was jubilant about the progress to date but stated that it would be December before the bill reached the House floor. He urged all members to write their Congressman to support the measure. The bill hit a snag when certain congressmen misapprehended its intent and believed it carried a request for financial aid, therefore, should come under the incorporation laws of the District of Columbia. Henderson, in an "important notice," asked all members to write their lawmakers again of the true context of the bill. Congressman Ashbrook and his colleagues eventually convinced the opposition of the true purpose of the Charter but this did not happen until the advent of the next administration. Historians of the period credit both Ashbrook and Henderson with the success of the Federal Charter.

Fifty members and many guests attended the 1911 convention, held August 28 to 31. They were treated to the wonderful hospitality of the Chicago group, good news about the Charter, magnificent exhibits and an odd twist in the election of officers. A new bylaw called for only the nomination of the candidates at a convention with a mail ballot to follow. An election committee would tabulate results and announce the winners at a later date. For reasons revealed later, Dr. Henderson's name was withheld for reelection to the high office but it was placed on the list of candidates for the Board. In November the ballot committee announced that Judson Brenner had been elected ninth President and the Doctor to the Board of Governors.

A committee composed of George Arnold, Henri Ripstra and Henry Chapman succeeded where similar groups failed and in October announced that the Association convention medal had been struck and was available to the membership. It was designed by Ripstra from a sketch by Duffield and was quite similar to its present day counterpart. The medal was a replica of the A.N.A. seal, attached by links to bars which named the date and city of the various conventions the member had attended. Both were linked to a dime-sized button for attaching to the lapel.

A total of 227 persons joined the Association during the Henderson regime. Bert Gillham, Frank Liveright and Honorable Arthur W. Kopp are surviving members. Other prominent persons were: Elbert Hubbard, poet and editor of the "Scrapbook"; Frank J. Bescher, famous stamp and coin collector; Moritz Wormser, fourteenth President; Bernard Morgenthau, specialist on transportation tokens; D. W. Valentine, authority on U. S. half dimes and Dr. Charles E. McGirk who wrote a classification of U. S. large cents which never quite caught the fancy of collectors of that series.

Dr. Henderson was serving as a Board member when President Taft signed the Federal Charter and it became a reality. He always retained his interest in numismatics, both fraternally and as an avocation. He served on four U. S. Assay Commissions under three Presidents, Taft, Wilson and Harding. At the last meeting, he strongly urged the minting of the Peace dollar. The ex-President was always a central figure in the many conventions that he attended, was reelected to the Board in 1939 and served one more term. He was awarded honorary membership at the 1941 Philadelphia convention and held similar honors in other numismatic groups.

The Doctor was very active and served as an officer in several dental and historical societies and was a leader in church, charity and uplift. He passed away on June 30, 1942, after an illness of several weeks. Farran Zerbe eulogized him with "The Association lost a pillar. I lost a prized friend."

Lecture or commentary notes accompany each set, describing each slide in the set. These notes may be read just as written, as the slides are shown, or used as the basis for less formal comments.

There are no fees other than transportation costs. The sets are sent via Railway Express Collect and returned or forwarded from one club to another via prepaid express. (BECAUSE OF BREAKAGE SLIDES ARE NOT SENT THROUGH THE MAIL.) The usual round trip express charges average about $5.00.

When ordering slides give exact dates of meeting, exact address (express shipments to post office boxes are delayed) and specify alternate choices. Sets must be requested at least three weeks in advance of showing, and may be reserved for as much as a year ahead. Only one slide set may be reserved for each meeting.

For reservations or further information, please write to: Michael M. Dolnick, Custodian of Slides, 6720 North Seeley Ave., Chicago 45, Ill.

ERRATUM: "Survey of Medieval Iberian Coinages." F. Xavier Calicó, noted authority on Spanish coins, made the following comment in a letter to the authors (7/11/61) regarding the Madrid mint during the medieval period:

"Anyhow, I take the liberty of making a remark on one assertion of the said article, Numismatist, page 744, referring to identify as from Madrid, coins with mark of crowned M.

"It is convenient to state that the little importance that Madrid had cannot justify its having a mint in epoch former to Philip III who was the founder of that mint in 1614. At the beginning, the monogram was utilized as mark, and the crowned M, token of royal city, was not adopted till Philip V, about in 1718. The mark of crowned M that is seen under Henry IV, according to general opinions must be attributed to Murcia.

"Existing references stating that the Madrid monetary mint was among the 150 ones authorized by King Henry IV are not very sure, but if it minted and used a mark there was not any reason of utilizing the crowned M."

JAPANESE EARTHENWARE COINS

By

H. F. BOWKER

A SERIES of coins was devised in Japan during the late war which apparently has not been noticed in the occidental numismatic press, that graphically demonstrates the straightened situation to which the Japanese were reduced by the American submarine offensive against their home islands prior to VJ Day.

The tin and aluminum issues of the war years are well known, but the submarine campaign against Japan severely inhibited the importation of the ores from overseas from which these metals were smelted to such an extent that it was found necessary to prepare minor coins by the use of native Japanese materials. They turned to a local product for which Japan has been renowned for centuries — earthenware or pottery.

An emergency issue of three denominations of one, five, and ten sen was manufactured in June, 1945. The impending surrender made their issue into circulation unnecessary or undesirable, and it is reported that all were supposed to have been scrapped in August, 1945, but a limited number have survived and bring relatively high prices in the Japanese market on the infrequent occasions when they are offered.

An article in Japanese, illustrated by an ink-rubbing of the one sen denomination, was published in the magazine Sen Dan, No. 56, p. 7, of August, 1955, from which the accompanying illustration was taken. It is 12.5 mm. in diameter and has the three Kanji characters Dai Ni Hon (Japan) arranged radially about a center cherry blossom. The reverse depicts the cone of Mt. Fuji (Fujiyama) at the right, with the Kanji character for one (1) in the sky at the left. The coins are undated.

Neither of the higher denominations have yet been seen by the writer, but we have been informed by a correspondent in Japan that all three were described, and possibly illustrated, in the third, fourth, and fifth issues of the numismatic periodical Kosen. Unfortunately our file of this periodical does not contain these earlier issues.

"Coins and Early Christianity" Slide Set

The A.N.A. Visual Education Committee announces that Slide Set No. 23 is ready for use by A.N.A. member clubs. Committeeman John F. Lhotka, Jr. of the University of Oklahoma, recognized authority on ancient Roman coins as well as war medals, has recently completed this set entitled "Coins and Early Christianity." Dr. Lhotka is the author of several other slide sets and the excellence of his work is well-known. He has prepared the lecture with care, telling the story in an interesting manner while maintaining his own high standards of completeness and accuracy of detail. Most of the coins used for the slides were from Dr. Lhotka's own collection, some from the collection of the American Numismatic Society.

This slide set is the answer to the many requests the Visual Education Committee has had for a series on "Coins of the Bible" and should be very much in demand. The coins pictured are those mentioned in the Bible and also others in use at the time of the Biblical writings. The lecture describes the coins and tells the story relating to them.

The A.N.A. Visual Education Committee is a service committee of our organization and hopes the member clubs are taking advantage of the opportunity to learn more about different fields of collecting through the A.N.A. slide series. The sets are an excellent program aid, usually taking about a half hour for a complete showing including the lecture. To obtain any of the twenty-three slide sets now available (others are in preparation by the committee), write to Michael Dolnick, A.N.A. Custodian of Slides, 6720 N. Seeley Ave., Chicago 45, Ill. The only fees involved are the transportation costs. It is suggested that three weeks notice be given and, if possible, a second choice slide set mentioned.

BOOK REVIEWS

Handbook of United States Coins, With Premium List, Nineteenth Edition, by R. S. Yeoman, 1962, Whitman Publishing Co., Racine, Wis., illustrated, $1.00.

It is hardly news that the nineteenth annual edition of the "Bluebook" made its appearance late in August. Nor is it surprising that there are no spectacular changes to report from the previous edition, although a number of important price changes were made. And many will be happy that the 1960 large and small date cents are illustrated and priced.

The dealers' greatest problem — that of obtaining early type coins — is reflected in increases in premiums offered for such coins as these: 1794 half dime, fine, up from $50 to $65; 1796 quarter, fine, from $375 to $450; 1793 half dollar with three leaves, fine, up from $150 to $225; 1796 quarter eagle without stars, ex. fine, up from $600 to $1150; and the same with stars increased from $400 to $1000. Noticeable and general increases are found in premiums listed for gold dollars and three dollar pieces. Increased demand for commemoratives resulted in increased offers, of which these are outstanding: 1928 Hawaiian, $150; 1935 Hudson, $70; 1936 Bridgeport, $11 ($4.50 in previous edition) and the lowly Stone Mountain is up from $1.25 to $2.00.

No, nothing spectacular, but the "Bluebook" will continue to be a big seller and a bargain at only $1.00. It is a convenient reference for any coin collector, and has helped thousands of accumulators to become collectors. — GLENN S.

United States Territorial Coinage for the Philippine Islands, by Neil Shafer, 1961, Whitman Publishing Co., Racine, Wis., illustrated, $1.00.

Another of the Whitman Coin Reference Series which is bound to be popular and to increase interest in Philippine coinage has made its appearance. While it does give retail prices of Philippine coins from 1898 to 1946, the author is to be complimented in going far beyond merely evaluating a series of coins.

The full page of acknowledgements convinces the reader that every effort was made to get facts from reliable sources. Besides an impressive list of persons consulted, Shafer states that the Bureau of the Mint and the National Archives of the United States rendered invaluable assistance. His research and thorough coverage of the topic results in four pages of history relating to the acquisition of the Islands by the United States; then in nine pages of monetary history and early coinage for the Philippines by our government. In subsequent listing of the coins dated 1903-1945, many varieties are explained and well illustrated.

The last half of the sixty-three page book is devoted to commemorative coinage, a descriptive listing of coins by types, the Culion island leper colony coinage from 1913 to 1930, Japanese occupation medals, tradesmen's and other tokens, and finally several pages of excellent line drawings to assist in grading Philippine coins.

A heretofore neglected phase of United States coinage is now well recorded by a painstaking author and made available in convenient and inexpensive form by Whitman Publishing Company — GLENN S.

At its 125th meeting in the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel in Pasadena, the San Gabriel Valley Coin Club had Ralph A. Mitchell of Fullerton as guest speaker. Ralph is known far and wide in the numismatic field for his large and varied collections and for the generous sharing of his extensive knowledge. His instructive talk on "Today's Junk—Tomorrow's Rarities" was interspersed with lively anecdotes about his quest for the unusual. He told of collecting "Clam Shells" of Pismo Beach; of the "Bank Holiday" and depression scrip; his rolled cents, about which he once scoffed but now boasts of having 150 different pieces; and of many other items of seeming inconsequence. In all, he spoke of at least thirty types of relatively inexpensive items which are both interesting and instructive to the collector. President Alva Christensen displayed a Babylonian clay tablet, dated about 1850 B.C., with an inscription concerning a contract for selling barley. Houston Barry showed some ancient coins, and Ethel R. Stone some fine wampum, probably from New Jersey or Pennsylvania. Jim Farrell displayed a Mexican Revolutionary "Death Dollar." Other exhibits were by Jim Suppa, Durrell Smith, Bob Northwood, Frank Smith, Elmer Johnson and Pat Kelly. M. H. Bolender displayed the catalog of his 128th sale in 1941, which was largely responsible for starting "Curley" Mitchell on his fine collection of Odd and Curious money. — ETHEL R. STONE, Corr. Sec.

Guest speaker at the July 31 meeting of the Albuquerque Coin Club was William A. Whitfield, local member of the American Vecturist Association. Sixty members and guests heard Whitfield tell how he became interested in collecting transportation tokens, what makes a token valuable, and some of his experiences in acquiring certain items in his display. — EDNA P. FITZ, Publicity Chm.

The Old Fort Coin Club will hold its fourth annual open house and coin exhibition November 4 and 5. On Saturday the hours will be 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. and Sunday from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. It will be held at the National Guard Armory, 330 S. Clinton St., Fort Wayne, Ind. General Chairman is James Fairfield, 1825 W. State St., Fort Wayne. Others of the committee are Victor Sandlin, co-chairman and bourse; Jack Paul, registration; Myron Huffman, exhibits; John Shaffer, finance; and Ward Lassen, publicity. Last April, the Club (Fort Wayne, Ind.) concluded a contest in which six of the Club's 175 members entered a total of seventeen designs for a club seal. Winner by a wide margin was Jack Harshman, who received an inscribed wall plaque for the design illustrated herewith. It will be used on membership cards, letterheads, in advertising, etc. Second and third place winners were Charles Masel and James Fairfield. — VICTOR L. SANDLIN, Sec.

With an attendance of nineteen, the Panhandle Coin Club held its August 2 meeting in the Chadron City Hall. Ed Klinat displayed and spoke about his collection of mercury dimes. Ed Coats showed and talked on two British half-sovereigns, one of King George V and the other of King Edward VII. He also displayed a Feuchtwanger cent and gave its history. The Club received a nice letter of appreciation for its book donation to the Philippine Numismatic and Antiquarian Society.

Bill Schlickbernd made a most interesting talk on German coins to the fourteen members at the August 16 meeting.

He displayed many German coins, including gold, commemorative and coins of the individual German states. He gave us a lot of information about the coins and the history behind them. Since this was a part of numismatics about which few of us knew, we enjoyed the talk very much. We welcome two new members, Jim Wiley and Charles Thompson, both of Chadron. — TED KADLECEK, Jr.

The May meeting of Pacific Coast Numismatic Society was its 46th Anniversary Banquet and was held at Torin's Restaurant in San Francisco, with fifty-four present. Lesley G. Lodge was made a Fellow of the Society, an honor which only six members have. A small collection of communion tokens was presented to David L. Redfield for his long and faithful service, and to help him replace some lost recently.

The theme of the June meeting was "Gold Night." Fifty-nine members and guests heard guest speaker Ronnie Carr of Tulare. There were eighteen exhibits, including many pioneer and U. S. gold rarities, of which one was a Denver Mint double eagle in perfect proof condition with brilliant field and lovely dull satin finish on the figure.

The July meeting featured Canadian coins and paper money. Harold Don Allen of Montreal, who is currently attending Santa Clara University, was our guest speaker. There were fifty in attendance and fifteen exhibits, one exhibit being an 1849 Norris, Greig and Norris gold coin, shown by guest I. Snyderman of New York. — MRS. HARRY CUTLER, Sec.

The August meeting of Old Capitol Coin Club drew an exceptionally large crowd of thirty-seven persons who braved Iowa heat and humidity. The program included a talk on insuring coin collections by vice president Bill Gower, and a discussion of Hard Times tokens by Ted Weissbuch, who displayed his tokens and a copy of Lyman Low's book. We discussed the recent increase in overgrading of coins ordered by mail, and it was decided that members would pool information concerning dealers who consistently misrepresent their coins. Several members related incidents where they had difficulty in getting their checks back from certain dealers for returned coins. President Bob Shea, who is assistant postmaster of Iowa City, suggested that members refer future cases to him for possible action by the Postal Department. — TED N. WEISSBUCH, Publ. Chm.

The Triple Cities Coin Club of Binghamton, N. Y., which is host to the twenty-fourth semiannual Empire State Numismatic Association convention next spring, will give its second annual dinner October 3 at the Johnson City, N. Y. Moose Club auditorium at 6:30 p.m. ESNA President Paul C. Livingston will speak on paper currency. Banquet chairman is William Vanco, Vestal, N. Y.; banquet tickets are $2.00. — FRED G. HUNTER, Pres.

In the "Club News" item on page 1080 of the August issue, regarding the Key Coin Club's convention on October 21 and 22, the price of bourse tables was stated as being $20. This was an error — we consider the charge of $25 to be a bargain for such an important two-day show. The latest addition to an impressive list of exhibits is a philatelic exhibit valued at $25,000. — FRANK C. MIRTO, Pres.

October 28 and 29 are the dates of the first Coinarama to be held by Dearborn (Mich.) Coin Club. It will be open from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m. on Saturday and from noon to 5 p.m. on Sunday in the Dearborn Youth Center Bldg. A feature of the show will be the large number of exhibits, including the quarter million dollar gold and platinum collection of Irving Moskovitz which has won many top awards in exhibits from coast to coast. Twenty bourse tables will be open during the entire show, and a floor bid only auction will be held each afternoon. There is a 1000 car free parking lot at

The Soy City Coin Club announces that its third annual show will be held this year on November 4 and 5 at the Elks Club, Decatur, Ill. Two auction sessions will be held, and awards are offered for the best exhibits in several classes. There will be door prizes hourly, with a special gold drawing at the end of the show. Additional information may be obtained from Mrs. Irene De Zarn, 119 Pennsylvania Ave., Decatur, Ill. — HOMER L. DAUGHERTY, Pres.

The first annual Jamboree of Francis E. Spinner Coin Club, Frankfort, will be held in the General Herkimer Hotel in Herkimer, N. Y. on October 8. Further information may be obtained from Robert E. Jones, Secretary, 326 Second Ave., Frankfort, N. Y. — JOHN REDJIVES

The Galveston County Coin Club, Texas City, is making big plans for its fourth annual show on October 21 and 22, 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. each day. It will be held in two rooms of the air conditioned Carl Nessler Civic Center in Texas City, only thirteen miles from the vacation city of Galveston. One room will house the bourse, for which all tables have been sold. The other will be used for displays and the afternoon auction each day. Awards for best exhibits in the youths' and adults' classes will be given at a Sunday breakfast in the gym. Sandwiches and coffee will be available throughout the day, and door prizes will be drawn frequently. A record crowd is expected to this show which is being expanded to two days this year due to the enlarged membership of the Club and the increased interest in collecting in the area. Everyone is invited, especially those vacationing in the vicinity.

Additional information may be obtained from Carl Nessler, Jr., 727 22nd Ave. North, Texas City, or from Co-Chairman E. E. White, 412 Pine St., LaMarque, Texas. — E. E. WHITE

The Ypsilanti Coin Club will hold its second annual show on October 1 in the Masonic Temple from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. A 50-lot auction in the afternoon will include many scarce and sought after coins. Information may be obtained from the General Chairman at 13787 Farm Rd., Belleville, Mich. — PETER M. KRESS, Gen. Chm.

The San Francisco Coin Club will observe its first anniversary at the October 20 meeting in the San Francisco Hall of Flowers in Golden Gate Park. Social activities are being planned and the presidents of Bay Area clubs will be asked to attend. The Club recently passed the 110 mark in membership. Planned programs are being presented, such as Roy Hill's talk on the San Francisco Mint and Ronnie Carr's exhibit of gold. At the November 17 meeting, we will be host to officers and members of the new Northern California Numismatic Association. Everyone is especially invited to the anniversary meeting on October 20. — ROY HILL

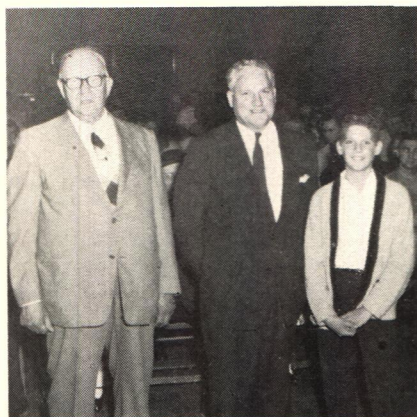

"Monies of the West" will be the theme of the East Bay Coin Club's ninth annual Coinival to be held October 29 in Lakeside Park Garden Center in Oakland. R. J. Frost is general chairman, assisted by bourse chairman Sidney T. Gilligan, 2534 Mathews St., Berkeley, exhibit chairman Robert East, and George R. Squires who is in charge of the auction of members' lots. A section of donated lots will be a special feature of the auction. We invite collectors and dealers enroute to the semiannual show of California State Numismatic Association in Santa Monica on November 2-5 to detour through Oakland for our Coinival on October 29. — ROY HILL, Publicity

With 8600 square feet of coin activity, featuring bourse tables, coin displays and auctions, the Lincoln Coin Club of Southgate, Mich., invites all collectors to its second annual convention October 21-22 in the Steelworkers Union Hall. Special prizes of $5 and $10 gold pieces will be offered. For bourse space, contact Floyd Webb, 947 Harrison, Lincoln Park, Mich. Plenty of good food and free parking for all is assured. — WINIFRED JEWELL, Sec.

A near capacity crowd of 115 attended the August 11 meeting of Oak Park (Ill.) Coin Club in the air-conditioned Oak Park Arms Hotel. Plans for our November 5 West Suburban Coin Show at the Hotel were discussed, announcement being made that the newly designed "numismatic award" medals available from Medallie Art Co. will be presented to exhibit winners. We were reminded that exhibits must be registered in advance of the show date. Inquiries should be addressed to the Club, P. O. Box 167, Oak Park, Ill. Ten widely varied exhibits were shown and discussed at this meeting, as follows: various Colonial coins, Don Doswell; large size U. S. paper money, mostly Legal Tender and Silver Certificates, Harry Flower; California fractional gold, ten genuine and ten token pieces, Jim Grebinger; 1914-D cent, Br. Unc., Robert Jacobs; South African proof sets, 1952-61 complete, Harold R.

Klein; large size Canadian notes, two each $4 and $25, Stanley Kruswicki; Bureau of Engraving and Printing "working" photographs, Harold Mareska; eighteen commemorative coins depicting persons, Elmer Moller; 1960 African proof set and two anniversary medals, M. A. Powells; two steel engraved bank note plates and a portrait of Washington (unlisted) engraved on copper, Glenn S. — S. A. VAN PETTEN, Sec.

Over 200 members and guests attended the July 6 meeting of Youngstown Numismatic Club. We are pleased to announce that several new books have been donated to our embryo library and are available to members from Librarian Jack Jones. Our annual picnic was held in beautiful Mill Creek Park, with games, prizes and showing of a colored film of Canada. All numismatists in the area are invited to attend our monthly meetings the first Thursday evening in Krakusy Hall. — JOANNE VANDEN BOSCH

Richland, Wash., home of the Hanford Atomic Works on the Columbia River, will be the site of the second annual Atomic Coin Pow Wow of the Columbia Basin Coin Club. It will be held October 21-22 in the Richland Community House, with doors opening at 10 a.m. daily. Exhibit awards are offered in six sections of material; there will be two auction sessions, and a bourse in which space may be reserved by writing to Lloyd C. Beach, 1343 Thayer Dr., Richland. A fifty cent registration fee for the two days will include participation in door prize drawings. Uniformed police will be on duty throughout the entire show, and a snack bar will be in operation. Hotel and motel accommodations are convenient to the Community House. Other information may be had from the Club's secretary, P. O. Box 163, Richland, Wash. — P. P. BEARDSLEY, Sec.

Bill Pukall and Darwin France gave about one hundred members and guests of Evansville Coin Club a report on the main events and attractions at the A.N.A. Atlanta convention. The club meeting was held August 27 in the McCurdy Hotel. A scenario, filmed by Bettye Klauss, of the Indiana State Numismatic Society's Evansville convention was shown, to the enjoyment of all. Dr. Charles F. Leich, president, narrated the A.N.A. slide set of "Commemorative Coins and Medals," which were viewed with interest. — BETTYE KLAUSS, Sec.

Ed Ashalter exhibited antique tea dunkers and old currency at the July 25 meeting of Port City Coin Club in Muscatine, Iowa. Forty-eight members attended. President Ray Wendinger announced membership of committees for the 1961-62 year. — MRS. GUS HEINRICH, Publicity

On August 2 the Louisville (Ky.) Coin Club elected the following officers of the junior division: president, James Sievert; vice president, Robert Samuel; and secretary-treasurer, Larry Gray. It is planned to have these junior officers assist the senior members at their meetings. — DAVID L. SIMMONS, Pres.

The Club Of Illinois Numismatists (C.O.I.N.) held its last-Friday-of-the-month meeting in July in air conditioned comfort in the Village Hall, Homewood. We were happy to have fifteen new applications for membership. George Uhl displayed several of the early bust type dimes and nearly complete sets of later types and gave an interesting talk on U. S. dimes. William Brown displayed and spoke on several ancient coins. Hugh Knight showed and talked about "Coins of Germany." Lois Otis exhibited and spoke about obsolete bank notes of the Hartford Exchange Bank, Hartford, Ind.

Seventeen members and fifteen guests attended the seventeenth meeting on August 25 and enjoyed a report by Lois Otis on the Atlanta convention of A.N.A. President and Mrs. Otis brought back the Club's second place award in National Coin Week competition, Class C. We are proud of this beautiful plaque. The Otis' exhibit was badges, photos, program, wooden nickels and other items from the convention. Other exhibits, about which the exhibitors spoke, were: a type set of nickels, by Dave Denis; several coins of Mexico, by Hugh Knight; two type sets of gold coins and several commemorative gold coins by Robert Feiber and Paul Otis, the latter speaking on the history of gold, its uses, mining, etc. Dr. E. Pasternak talked about and exhibited gold for dental work. — HELEN SCHWENGER, Publicity

The annual social meeting of Western Pennsylvania Numismatic Society was held August 1. Entertainment was provided by James Hendel, and we viewed a movie titled "Goodbye Again," starring Ingrid Bergman. Refreshments and coin talk followed the movie. — DR. ROBERT J. HUDSON, Sec.

The Japanese-American Numismatic Society was formed in the Kanto plains area, Honshu Island, Japan, last February. This is one of the few, if not the first, bilingual numismatic club to be formed. Its aim is to further encourage cultural interchange and international amity between Japanese and Americans through numismatics. Arrangements were made to conduct the Society's meetings twice a month in the city of Tachikawa, located on the "Chou" rail line which offers excellent transportation to both Americans and Japanese from the Tokyo and Yokohama areas. Through the graciousness of Reverend Glenn W. Kranzow, space was set aside for our meetings at the Lutheran Service Center. To induce as many of both nationalities to join as possible, regardless of financial standing, dues were set at Y360 ($1.00) per year. We are gratified that several Japanese coin dealers from the Tokyo and Yokohama area became members and attend Society meetings regularly. From meetings thus far held it is apparent that Americans are in for a real treat, for there have been some very extravagant and rare items displayed, including Oriental gold, specimens, proofs, etc. Most coin collectors seldom get the chance to see these, much less the chance to buy them. The Japanese "tea cup" auction, a standard feature at meetings, is most unusual and exciting for Americans. In brief, the seller places from one to a dozen or more coins in a tea cup with his name and minimum selling price. The cup is passed around the table and each interested buyer places his tightly folded bid in the cup and hopes for the best. Another type of auction is called the "heart breaker," or "don't participate unless your physical condition is good." Again briefly: the auctioneer displays a rare item to the crowd and starts with double the price or value of it. He then gradually reduces the price until someone "breathes too loud" and becomes the buyer. Of course, he always wonders how far down it might have gone if he had held off just a little longer.

At the May 15 meeting, new officers for the 1961-62 year were elected. At the meeting of July 6, Mayor Mitsuo Sakurai of Tachikawa City welcomed the new officers of the Society and expressed the opinion that it truly represents "grass roots" people-to-people contact between the people of his country and America. The new officers are: president. Oliver D. Brown, Tachikawa Air Base; first vice president, Dr. John B. Harman, same location; second vice president, E. Tamiya, Yokohama coin dealer; secretary, Patricia Brown, Tachikawa Air Base; treasurer, C. J. DeBruin, Nakano-ku, Tokyo-to. — PATRICIA BROWN, Sec.

The main attraction of the summer meeting of Arkansas Numismatic Society in Pine Bluff was a giant auction. Auctioneers B. L. Wooley and Sal Salmons of American Auction Company provided entertainment while selling coins. Since, they said this was their second auction, they promised not to describe any "BU coins as in very good condition." They claimed to be unable to read a "Red Book" and vowed to call the bidding louder and faster than the "whirr" of our books. Many coins went far beyond the asking price. Dick McGille, president of the host Pine Bluff Coin Club welcomed us to this third quarterly and last meeting of the fiscal year. Byron Wilson installed the new officers. Outgoing president W. M. Hackett noted the tremendous growth of the Society and new president C. G. Ball declared that larger quarters and planning for bigger things was the future goal. — MRS. J. P. WILLIS, Sec.

The Halifax (N. S.) Coin Club announces a change in meeting date to the first Wednesday monthly. — NELSON C. BOLTZ, Sec.

The Uncas Numismatic Association will hold its second annual show on November 4 at Johnson's Flower Shop in Norwich, Conn. There will be a bourse, exhibits and auction, hours from 1 p.m. to 9 p.m. Chairman is Harry Schatz, Fitchville, Conn., and John Sullivan of North Stonington, Conn. is handling the bourse tables. — MARION B. BAILEY, Sec.

Members of the newly formed Coastal Empire Coin Club, Savannah, Ga. invite all A.N.A. and affiliated club members to attend its meetings the first and third Thursday evenings monthly. Located in an area of sunny beaches, historical landmarks and inexpensive hostleries, many find this an ideal vacation spot. The secretary will be glad to answer inquiries, but requests that a self-addressed and stamped return envelope be enclosed. Address: 111 East 39th St., Savannah, Ga. — BETTY L. CASH, Sec.

(Editor's note: We are sure this is not Savannah Chamber of Commerce publicity, but a sincere invitation from the Club.)

Two records were broken at the August meeting of San Diego Numismatic Society when it had an attendance of 151, and twenty-one exhibits. Tied for first place were Michael McHenry with "The Coin Farm," Leonel C. Panosh, "My Favorite Fifteen Coins," and Dennis Phelps, "Money to Burn" (wooden nickels). Second place went to Oakley Pike for his "Money is Fun" display which showed how to collect coins from pocket change. Other exhibitors were: Catherine Fearn, Paul Hamm, Kenneth Hedges, Francis S. Jones, W. H. McHenry, Hale Pike, Reagan Ratliff, Donald Rose, John Simonneau, Roger Sullivan, Elmer Tvedt, T. W. Ward and a Club exhibit. A commemorative medal for the fiftieth anniversary of Naval Aviation, to be issued soon and displayed by Jones, is important to San Diegans as this is to be designated as the birthplace of Naval Aviation. — FRANCIS S. JONES, Publicity Chm.

C. R. Young, newly elected president of Glendale (Calif.) Coin Club presided at the 42nd meeting, with seventy in attendance. Edwin E. Bergolte gave an informative talk on the Saint-Gaudens gold coins. A plaque was presented to outgoing president Thomas H. Wood in recognition of his hard work and fine service rendered to the Club during the past year. — ESTELLE K. POWERS, Rec. Sec.

The "Fiftieth State" coin club recently elected officers for the fiscal year 1962. These new officers of Honolulu Coin Club are: president, L. Burd; vice president, J. W. Anderson; treasurer, Vernon Tucker; and secretary, L. B. Tucker. R. W. England was appointed sergeant-at-arms. An installation dinner, honoring the new officers and acclaiming the outgoing officers, was held recently at the Queens Surf Restaurant on Waikiki Beach. The Club has an active membership of seventy-five and holds meetings the second Wednesday and fourth Monday monthly at the Armed Services YMCA. — L. B. TUCKER, Sec.

The "world's largest" Los Angeles Coin Club passed the thousand-member mark at its August 4 meeting when the Ralph R. Bradfords, senior and junior, were admitted. Both men offered the number 1000 to the other, but audience applause decided the matter in favor of Ralph, Sr. Six additional applicants were voted to membership. Karl Brainard won the $5 exhibit award with his "Humor in Numismatics." Other exhibitors were: Thelma Case, shell money; William Koonce, New Zealand Forces-Maori Wars, including the Waitangi Treaty crown; Elizabeth Goodson, coins of South America; Horace Bloxam, quarter-size coins; Harley Kaufman, "History in Headlines." Program Chairman Thomas H. Wood introduced a Los Angeles Fire Prevention Bureau representative who showed and narrated a color film of a recent devastating fire in the Malibu Canyon area. We learned a great deal about property protection and safe evacuation of canyon areas from this film and talk. — CAROLYN OLSON

LAWNDALE'S WINNERS

Exhibit winners at the Lawndale (Cal.) Coin Club's Birthday Coinarama July 16 were, l. to r., Horace Bloxam, best in show; Mel Fishel, first in American paper money; Joy Parrish, second in medals and tokens; William Erdman, first in American coins; Millicent Fishel, second in American coins; Robert Axelrod, first in medals and tokens; Gertrude Barth, first in foreign paper money.

With representatives of fourteen local clubs and one regional group participating, the Northern California Numismatic Association became a reality at a meeting on August 7 in San Jose. Temporary officers, to serve through 1961, are: president, Denis Hooker; treasurer, Milton Strauch; secretary, Lillian Hooker; steering committee member, John Sears. Annual dues, for both individuals and clubs, will be $1 on a calendar year basis and are being accepted by the treasurer, 77 Westbrook Ave., Daly City, Calif. Ten clubs and many individuals paid their membership dues at this meeting, and others are following suit. Charter membership will close December 31, 1961. A.N.A. Board Member Robert G. McArthur addressed the meeting, lending his sage advice and offering full support to the new organization. — LILLIAN HOOKER, Sec.

At a recent meeting of South Central Nebraska Coin Club, Hastings, Herschel Simmering was elected president, Roy Bassett vice president and Mrs. Rosella Grimes secretary-treasurer. The Club meets the fourth Monday monthly in the House of Tomorrow in the Hastings Museum. Mrs. C. J. Gray, a club member, brought us distinction during the past year when she was named "Nebraska Mother of the Year." We were saddened, however, by the passing of Honorary Member Ben J. Richards, 82, on June 19. He was a member of the Museum staff and had one of the most extensive collections in the Midwest. His collection began when, as a boy, he attended a Fourth of July celebration in the little town of Roseland and was given a quarter to spend. He made a purchase and received an 1844 dime in change, which became the nucleus of his collection. It now numbers some 4466 pieces of coin and paper money and is to be housed as a permanent display in the Museum. Collectors will be interested in the medals and wooden nickels being issued in connection with the National Little League World Series held in Hastings for the third consecutive year. — MRS. ROSELLA GRIMES, Sec-Treas.

Fontana (Calif.) United Numismatists elected officers and directors for the 1961-62 fiscal year at its August 11 meeting. Lcu Dohnalek, outgoing president, installed the following new officers: president, Everett Smith; first vice president, Ernest Camfield; second vice president, Dale Smith; treasurer, Sal Campagna; recording secretary, Margaret Chase; corresponding secretary, Eva Dohnalek; and librarian, Sue Zmudka. Newly elected directors are: Louis Beretich, Drew Bourland and Jack Sisson. We were fortunate to lease ideal quarters for our meetings at the Brunton Auditorium. — EVA R. DOHNALEK, Corr. Sec.

With the strike of employees of the Royal York Hotel continuing, attendance at the July 22 meeting of Toronto Coin Club was only twenty members. Mrs. Louise Graham, President, had refrained from inviting a guest speaker but an impromptu question-and-answer exchange proved lively and informative. Those on the panel were: Dr. J. S. Wilkinson of Toronto, William English of Waterloo, Walter Holmes of London, Ed. Schroeder of Oakville and Rod Smith of Aurora. The latter told us that Aurora is on the way to forming its own club — we wish them luck. The application of Gaston di Bello (A.N.A. LM194) for membership was approved. We were saddened at the death of Arthur Lavine (A.N.A. 23937) on August 2. He was a noted collector and had been a very active member of our Club since 1955, being a member of the Executive Committee this year. He was a life member of Canadian Numismatic Association. Our profound sympathy is extended to Mrs. Lavine and members of the family. — H. A. CRAIG, Editor

Newly elected officers of North Dakota Coin Club are: president, Vern Hansen; vice president, Norman Wegner; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Hugh Mangskau. The latter was appointed district representative also, and Mrs. H. D. Dunahay was appointed Club librarian. Exhibits were two and three cent pieces, Civil War commemoratives, and new foreign issues. — HELEN L. MANGSKAU, Sec.

Henry Schneider, who has done extensive study of the Civil War, gave a most interesting talk to members of Cleveland Coin Club at its 258th meeting. Schneider has traveled to many important sites of the War, attended anniversary meetings and had a visit recently with Robert E. Lee the Fourth. He exhibited coins and tokens relating to the Civil War and some of the important men involved in it. Others who exhibited and spoke briefly were: Dr. Y. A. Sargis, Nora Forrest, Joe Lukas, James Kirkwood, William Nau and Dorothy Humitsch.

Member Dorothy Young of Oberlin spoke about Presidential medals, one of her many collections, at the July meeting. She exhibited the complete set and gave information about each medal and related historical events. We suspect that her talk will prompt others to collect these medals. Joe Lukas displayed coins and currency depicting dogs.

We were fortunate to have one of the organizers of Cleveland Coin Club, Howard Gibbs, now of Pittsburgh, as our guest speaker at the August meeting. He has collected jade for over fifty years and brought a beautiful display of this rare stone. Although never used as a coin, jade was used as a medium of exchange by royal families in China. It is found in certain large boulders and rocks, mostly in Burma, Tibet and Mongolia; was too expensive to be owned by the poor; symbolized good luck and was worn as an amulet or fastened to the belt, where it acquired a high polish from handling. Although imperial green is the rarest color, and often approaches diamonds in value, jade is found also in purple, yellow and white. Gibbs told us that many jade have been made to imitate jade. — THELMA HILTBRUNNER, Sec.

The Seattle Coin Club held its annual banquet at the Edmund Meany Hotel on May 6 with 104 in attendance. Annette Graves, who served as secretary for six years, and Stephen Bibler, who has given many years of valuable service to the Club, were honored with life memberships. This being the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Club, a nickel-silver medal was issued in commemoration of the event. A few are still available at $1 each. This Club will be host to the Pacific Northwest Numismatic Association in 1962, in connection with the World's Fair to be held here. — FLORENCE SEITER

The members of Central California Coin Club voted at the July 17 meeting to change the Club's name to Monterey Peninsula Coin Club. The thirty-eight in attendance enjoyed a lively meeting, with Bob Chantelli, a Junior member, displaying coins and making a short talk. Among the auction lots was a VF 1909-S VDB cent which brought $61. — WARREN S. CLAUNCH, Sec.

Members attending the July meeting of Buffalo Numismatic Association were treated to an exhaustive discussion of gold coinage, led by Jay Berlove. It was brought out that the collecting of private issue and certain other gold coins is of questionable legality. Various opinions were expressed, all of which point up the desirability of government clarification of its stand on such matters. George Cage displayed an 1848 model British crown and penny, which are English equivalents of our pattern coins. Jay Berlove featured a double-struck 1923-S cent. We invite everyone to our bimonthly meetings in the Museum of Science the first and third Monday evenings. — READ WOODWORTH, Sec.

S. Reisler, a fourteen-year-old junior member of Indianapolis Coin Club, stole the spotlight in exhibits at the July 26 meeting. Reisler is a junior, but a "veteran" of eight years in collecting U. S. coins. President William Rosner presented important amendments to our constitution, relating mostly to requirements for junior membership and naming a committee for screening applications of new members. A program on coin grading was accompanied by a discourse on the subject by Ray Fiscus on the ever-controversial "buyer-seller" viewpoint. — RALPH A. BROWN, Corr. Sec.

The Torrance (Calif.) Coin Club held its seventh meeting July 18 to a capacity and enthusiastic crowd. Vice President Wayne Dennis introduced guest speaker Karl Brainard who showed us slides of coins and pointed out the high spots to check for wear when grading condition. Horace Bloxam made a fine talk on his exhibit of foreign coins, pointing out some phases of this type of collecting. — MRS. VIRGINIA DENNIS, Historian

"The Coin Farm" won the Wallace Memorial Trophy at the ninth annual numismatic display at the Southern California Exposition and San Diego County Fair. Entered by Junior Member Michael McHenry of the San Diego Numismatic Society, the exhibit consisted of a large drawing of a farm with coins used to represent animals, plants, trees and the farmer. Francis S. Jones was general chairman of the event which is sponsored and managed by San Diego County Inter-Club Numismatic Council. Attendance this year was over 300,000. Other top awards were: Senior Best-in-Show, Tom Ward; Junior Best-in-Show, Oakley Pike. There were fifteen other award winners in the senior division and thirteen in the junior. Judges were L. L. Brown, Dick Crowson and Bill Wissland.

At the July meeting it was voted to set up a credit plan for blood at the local Blood Bank for the benefit of club members. Mrs. Beverley Lundberg was designated chairman of this important activity. Russell Rulau spoke on "Heraldry—The Study of Arms" before over a hundred members. He showed many examples of arms and explained how to read the colors. He told also that in many cases the only means of identifying European coins is by studying the arms on them. Exhibitors were: Francis S. Jones (first place), A. F. Anderson (second place), A. A. Cutler, Paul Hamm, Ray Koch, Tom McDaniel, Frank Powell, Leonel C. Panosh and Harvey Rose. — FRANCIS S. JONES, Publicity

NCW IN IOWA CITY

Ted N. Weissbuch, 1961 National Coin Week award winner is shown with part of the Confederate currency collection which came to light in the Special Collections section of the University of Iowa Library in Iowa City. As a result of the publicity given numismatics during Coin Week, over one hundred notes, all glued to cardboard(!) were found filed away in the library. After steaming them from the boards, Weissbuch began to catalog the bills. It is hoped that part of the collection, donated to the library many years ago, will be placed on display in a newly built addition to the library's Special Collections room, which also houses the Bollinger-Lincoln collection, one of the best collections of Lincolniana in the country.

U. S. TERRITORIAL COINAGE FOR THE

Philippine Islands

by Neil Shafer

U.S. Gen. Douglas MacArthur
"DEFENDER AND
LIBERATOR OF THE PHILIPPINES" Oct. 20, 1944

You know about this country whose first coin struck as an independent republic bears the portrait of an U. S. general. Now let Neil Shafer lead you into half a century of coinage while the islands were still a possession of the United States.

This book lists patterns, medals, commemorative pieces, gives mint records and prices of all coins from 1903 to 1946. You find actual photographs of Japanese occupation medals as well as all six issues of Culion, the Leper Colony. Very helpful are several pages of line drawings indicating check points for easier grading. A history of the Spanish-Philippine coinage is also given.

A NEW OFFICIAL MEDAL

We Present

THE 50TH YEAR OF NAVAL AVIATION, 1911-1961

We have been designated as sole, national distributors of the official medal to commemorate the 50th year of Naval Aviation. The designs were approved by the Fiftieth Anniversary Project Staff of the Chief of Naval Operations.

This medal is the same 2½" size as the previous, official medals distributed by our firm. It was struck by the Medallic Art Company from models of the well known sculptor, Paul Fjelde. Both the bronze and silver medals are boxed, with a printed, informative circular.

The silver medals are struck in pure silver having a fineness greater than .999. The issue of silver medals is limited to 5,000 serially numbered pieces.

The official prices of the Naval Aviation medal are:

The bronze medal	$ 4.00
The pure silver medal	30.00

A COMPANION MEDAL

The U.S.S. Enterprise Medal that was struck last year makes a fitting companion piece to the Naval Aviation Medal — in size; in quality; in subject matter.

The U.S.S. Enterprise which was launched in 1960, is the greatest of all navy vessels to employ naval aviation. It is not only a nuclear powered aircraft carrier, and the first of its kind; it is also the largest ship of any type in the world.

This official medal, which commemorates the launching, is offered at the original issue price, as follows:

The bronze Enterprise Medal	$ 4.00
The pure silver Enterprise Medal	30.00

The issue of silver medals was limited to 5,000 serially numbered pieces, and they are offered subject to being sold out.

Attention Coin Dealers: Established dealers are invited to send for our wholesale prices, using their business stationery and furnishing suitable credit references as to their commercial status.

Attention Coin Collectors: The above medals, as well as earlier issues, together with our publications, accessories and the Library of Coins, may be had at your local coin or stamp dealer, book or hobby shop or the Coin Departments of leading department stores.

COMPLETE UNITED STATES PROOF SET OF 1901

1901 $20, $10, $5, $2½ (Gold); $1, 50¢ 25¢ 10¢ (Silver); 5¢ (Copper-Nickel); 1¢ (Bronze). Choice, untouched "Virgin" Proofs. Careful examination of this set reveals only a minute granular mark (as made) in the upper r. reverse field of the Half Eagle, and microscopic signs of (careless) handling upon the obverse of the Quarter. The gold coins have never been cleaned and show a slight residual tarnish; the silver pieces are tarnished a deep blue and brown steel color; the nickel is lightly toned with flecks of darker reverse tarnish, and the cent is an iridescent maroon color, with a solitary obverse spot of steel tarnish. (We will clean this set [actually restore its original full brilliance], without evidence of cleaning, upon request only.) Only 85 1901 complete sets issued! 10 Pcs.$3,250.00

TOP QUALITY U. S. COMMEMORATIVE GOLD SET

1903 Jefferson, McKinley Dollars; 1904, 1905 Lewis & Clark Dollars; 1915 Pan-Pacific Quarter Eagle, Dollar; 1916, 1917 McKinley Dollars; 1922 Grant (with and without Star) Dollars; 1926 Sesquicentennial Quarter Eagle. "Gem" Uncirculated. All picked, selected, uncleaned pieces — no AU, polished or "second-rate" coins included. As fine a set as money can buy! Mtd. in Meghrig page. 11 Pcs. 1,347.50

EXCESSIVELY RARE HAWAIIAN EIGHTH DOLLAR TRIAL PIECES

1883 KALAKAUA I. Pattern EIGHTH DOL. Red-Copper trial upon very thick planchet with reeded edge. Only the second specimen known. Similar trial, in a predominantly nickel, Copper-Nickel alloy, struck upon a planchet of normal thickness with reeded edge. Believed unique! Uncirculated, some tone and tarnish. An excessively rare and completely authentic pair of contemporary die trials, from the Barber estate. An opportunity of a lifetime! The pair, for only 2,250.00

PAPER CURRENCY OF THE AMERICAN WEST

UNION MILITARY SCRIP. $10. June 1, 1867. Topeka, Kansas. Small farming vignette at upper l., trappers fighting off Indian raid at lower r. Issued under authority of an Act of the Legislature, providing for "The assumption and settlement of the claims growing out of the Price Raid in 1864, and Indian Expedition under Gen. Curtis, in July and August 1864." The Act approved Feb. 26, 1867, and this note payable under "Monies received from the Government of the United States . . . with interest at Seven per cent per annum." Abt. Very Fine. An exceptionally rare item, issued under indirect authority of the U. S., and presumably still redeemable. Of the greatest historical interest and value; only the second we have ever offered! 125.00

Territory of Utah. $1. July 1, 1856. THE DROVERS BANK. Salt Lake City. Large vignette, extending across almost the entire note of grazing Cattle and Sheep. Fully numbered and signed. A beautiful and important note by W. L. Ormsby, with his famous medallion reverse in orange. Abt. Unc. An inexpensive and early Utah item! 55.00

WANTED

Western Material, circa 1849-85. Including Pioneer Gold Coins and Ingots, Assay Ingots of Silver, Electrum or Gold; Paper Money, Scrip, Certificates of Deposit or Warrants, from Washington, Oregon, California, Idaho, Utah, Nevada, Montana, Colorado, Jefferson Territory, New Mexico and Arizona. We are also interested in patterns or trials for privately made coins, dies, punches, and literature pertaining to mining and assaying within the period. Scales (either hand or counter), Sheriff and Marshal badges, and, particularly, WELLS FARGO items, are of prime importance. We also can use Indian material, such as Indian Peace Medals, Trade Tokens, Trade Checks, and paper issued by the Choctaw, Cherokee and Creek Indian Nations. We know what we are buying, and can pay America's top prices!

ALL THE ABOVE ARE THE PRICES THAT I WILL PAY for the conditions and dates described. SEND WITH THE UTMOST CONFIDENCE.

I WILL ALSO BUY other rarities, key-dates and semi-key-dates not mentioned above. In this case PRICE YOUR COINS TO ME in your first letter. In all deals no deal will be consummated until BOTH parties are thoroughly and mutually satisfied.

CERTIFIED CHECK WILL BE AIR-MAILED SAME DAY YOUR COINS ARE RECEIVED! I am as close to you as your nearest Postal Box or Post Office. Sorry, no home or office visits. All my stock and cash is kept in bank vaults. I have been in the coin business nearly twenty years and, with God willing, hope to be another twenty years or more. I could not stay in business this length of time if I didn't buy, sell or trade honestly and conscientiously. I am a firm believer of the Golden Rule: "DO UNTO OTHERS AS YOU WOULD HAVE OTHERS DO UNTO YOU." UNLIMITED FUNDS!

EMPIRE COIN COMPANY, INC. offers . . .

CHOICE U. S. CENTS AND HALF CENTS

In the columns below we present a choice selection of United States half cents and large cents from our inventory. All coins have the usual Empire guarantee: Satisfaction guaranteed on all purchases. Any item not satisfactory for any reason may be returned within three days of receipt for a full refund.

America's leading collectors look to Empire for the finest U. S. coins. We have hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of rare coins in stock. Whether you are looking for a $5.00 coin or a $15,000 coin let us help you complete your collection. We will look forward to the pleasure of having you as a client.

HALF CENTS

We quote the following from the Empire Review, issue No. 14, page 6: "At the present time half cents are available at very reasonable prices. There are no common dates. In fact, the total mintage of the entire series from 1793 to 1857 is less than the mintage of the 1871 Indian cent. We predict that half cent prices will rise sharply in the next few years; particularly when the Breen reference now awaiting publication is released."

1793	Extremely Fine, light brown surface. An exceptionally choice and pleasing specimen of the first year of half cent coinage	$650.00
1794	Good $32.50; VF, damage on edge. Worth	37.50

WHITMAN PUBLISHING COMPANY, Racine, Wis.
WORLD'S LEADING NUMISMATIC PUBLISHERS

This yearly revised reference book answers the many questions asked by novice and advanced collectors. It is the most helpful guide for buying and selling all U.S. coins giving up-to-date prices that coin dealers are paying. Besides complete mint records and enlarged illustrations of mint marks, you'll find information about grading, preserving and storing of coins. Even a special section for people starting a collection is included.

Precision molding of WATER-CLEAR Polystyrene to close tolerances permits easy filling or removing of standard count rolls; no shifting or rubbing. POSITIVE-SEAL cap eliminates "air-resistance" and assures moisture and dust-proof protection. Discoloring elements are not only kept out, but more important, the CHEMICALLY INERT material never deteriorates, shrinks or releases harmful agents to tarnish your coins.

10th Edition
STANDARD CATALOGUE OF
CANADIAN COINS
TOKENS and PAPER MONEY

$1.00

by James E. Charlton outstanding authority on Canadian coinage

Many new photographs, additional information and the latest prices make the 10th edition of this standard catalogue again the number one book in its field. Almost 300 years of Canada's history are mirrored in its coins, tokens and paper money from the early French colonial coins of 1670 to the current issue of Queen Elizabeth II bank notes. It also covers regular issues of Newfoundland, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. Only Whitman gives you all three: authority in content, unmatched quality in printing and a popular price.

We would like to take time out to give the Atlanta Coin Club a bouquet for the wonderful job they accomplished in putting on the 1961 A.N.A. Convention. Never met so many nice and congenial people at one time and one place. The person who first used the expression, "Southern Hospitality," certainly must have had the members of the Atlanta Coin Club in mind. Yes sir, this was certainly Southern hospitality at its finest.

my specialty has been buying, selling and trading choice U. S. and Canadian coins and paper money, also Colonials, Foreign Silver Dollars and gold.

TRADING . . .

I have one of the largest stocks of copper, nickel, silver and gold coins, also paper money, from which to select for trades. Send me your nice coins or sets, value over $100.00, and let me know the type of coins you want. You will receive best trade I can make, and no deal is complete until we are both satisfied.

PURCHASES . . .

At present, am paying highest prices ever for Silver and Gold Commemorative coins. Let me know if you have a set, part set, or accumulation for sale. Up-to-the-minute quotations on receiving your letter. Or better still, send me your coins by Registered Mail, for my best offer and check, coins to be held for your O. K.

the best and easiest way to build up your collection with nice coins at lowest possible prices. If you can invest $10.00 or more a month in your collection, then we are in business. Enclose $10.00 with list of coins you need, and your first approval shipment will come return mail. If you have no special series in mind, here are a few suggestions:

TYPE SET REGULAR U. S. COINS: One coin of each different design Half Cents to Silver Dollars. Album to hold entire set, if you want.

TYPE SET U. S. GOLD COINS: Types of Gold Dollars to $20 pieces, De Luxe plastic holder with first shipment.

COMMEMORATIVE HALF DOLLARS: Strictly Unc. coins, begin on Type set, continue later for complete set if you want. Albums in stock.

LARGE U. S. PAPER MONEY: Different types or designs, make interesting collection. Each note housed in heavy plastic holder. Fractional Currency types also in stock.

FOREIGN SILVER DOLLARS: Collect these one dollar from each different country, see how many countries you can get. Albums in stock to hold these dollars.

OTHER COINS: We can supply your requirements in all series, but we cannot send on approval until we receive your first $10 payment and list of coins you need.

M^CM^{ASTER} Sterling TRADE MARK

Designed especially for proof and uncirculated U.S. coins

The coin recess of each Sterling holder is precision-molded to accommodate new or unworn coins so as to keep them perfectly airtight and free from turning in holder.

TRANSPARENT

Clearer than glass! Gives perfect views of obverse, reverse, and edge of coins.

PRECISION MADE

Exactly 2" square, $\frac{3}{16}$ " thick. Fits all standard cases and trays. Recesses for coins made to specifications of the U. S. Mint.

HERMETIC SEAL

Two halves of holder fit together perfectly with finger pressure. Coins will not tarnish due to atmospheric conditions.

SOLID PLASTIC

The protective properties of plastic keep coins displayed beautifully and indefinitely under almost any condition.

COIN HOLDER

It's so easy! Sandwich the coin between the two halves of the holder and press together for a precise friction fit and behold! Your prized coin is encased in a clear sheath of pure plastic with that 'molded-in' look. Insert a thin knife blade between the halves to open. To identify, write on the self-adhering strips provided in each box and apply to edge or side of holder.

PRESIDENTIAL ART PRESENTS LINCOLN MEDAL

We at Presidential Art Medals, Inc., take pride in introducing the new Lincoln medal . . . second in the series of finely sculptured, high quality Presidential Art Medals. This medal, like all medals in the series, will be struck by Medallic Art Company, the only American company devoted exclusively to sculptured bas-relief. The intricate design and sculptured work was done by Mr. Ralph Menconi, a sculptor internationally recognized for his abilities in full portrait and high relief work. A leaflet describing his work accompanies each medal.

This is a continuing program and three or four medals a year will be struck until the series of all Presidents is complete. New medals will be struck thereafter as Presidents are inaugurated. This exclusive offering will be a treasured possession whether you desire only one, or the entire series.

Among the more important reasons contributing to the increasing value of the precious medals is the fact that production is limited to the quantities shown below and unusually high standards of workmanship are strictly maintained. The practical size of the medal (slightly larger than a half dollar) makes it particularly well suited to display in an album, which will be offered about December 1st.

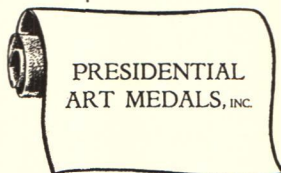

The Abraham Lincoln medal is offered as follows:

Platinum (pure), 25 serially numbered pieces	SOLD OUT
Silver (.999+), 6500 serially numbered pieces	$10.00
Bronze	2.50

Dealer Inquiries are invited.

Of special interest on the President John F. Kennedy Medal. One thousand Kennedy bronze medals were purchased by the State Department, four hundred of which were for distribution by President Kennedy himself on his mission to Paris, Vienna and London this past spring. These medals are still available, in bronze only, at $2.50 each.

NO MUSS!
NO FUSS!
NO TOOLS!

NO STAPLING EVER!

No staples, glue, tools or tape are necessary to enclose all size coins, neat, firm, fast!

E-Z SEAL provides for collector or dealer a completely enclosed holder which can be mailed with confident assurance that your coin can not be removed without destroying the holder. Once a coin is enclosed it is literally protected for the life of the holder.

This precision designed holder will protect your rare dates or complete collections against common circulating wear and tear.

E-Z SEAL VISUAL HOLDERS are available in strips of five. Each strip contains 4 holders for coins up to "Quarter Size" and 1 holder in "Half Dollar Size." Each type holds coins of any size up to maximum circumference. 1¢ to 50¢ holders are standard 2" x 2" size.

"Dollar Size" E-Z SEAL HOLDERS are available individually and are 2 1/2" x 2 1/2" square. Fits any size coin including Silver Dollar, Double Eagle and Foreign Crowns.

Buy one size for your entire collection!

If you have been unable to buy the HUDGEONS E-Z SEAL COIN HOLDER WITH THE ALL NEW CRYSTAL CLEAR WINDOW fill in the RUSH ORDER FORM and get a sample package today!

PACKAGING: Starter unit of 5 strips of 5 holders (25 in all) in clear Poly bag for quick self-counter service. See order blank for all package sizes.

Coin Collectors throughout the U.S. are acclaiming the BRAND NEW HUDGEONS E-Z SEAL HOLDER. Without a doubt here is the neatest, quickest, easiest to use holder, in Coin Collecting History.

Whether you are little or big in the coin world, the Hudgeons E-Z Coin Holder will save you time and money. You simplify all phases of collecting from filing to display . . . and your collection will increase in value with use of the E-Z Seal Holder.

E-Z Seal Holders are precision die cut from heavyweight stock, featuring a specially developed pressure sensitized adhesive that seals tight with only light finger pressure. Your coin is completely enclosed between 2 crystal clear windows and affords complete obverse, reverse and edge viewing and holds firm where placed in holder.

PUBLIC AUCTION SALES

New Season

Now starting what I believe will be the best yet. So many new collectors want so much and different material. Must have a lot of different material from Half Cents through Gold coins for auction. Send your coins soon as possible to be listed in my next sale. Be sure to send better coins or an entire collection for best prices.

CASH

Cash advanced on consignments if desired. Or will buy good material at good prices. Will pay spot cash. Want me to call on you?

REMEMBER

My auction sales are the oldest established PUBLIC and MAIL AUCTION SALES held today. We do not add the record of any previous dealer. I am proud to say I set this record myself. Grateful for the cooperation over all these years received from both the consignors and sellers as well as the liberal buyers that sustained these sales of mine longer than any others.

FREE! Catalog of next sale. Send your name.

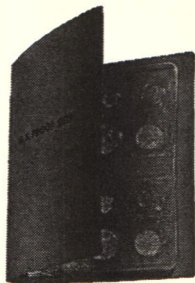

FOR COMPLETE COIN SERVICE

THE NUMISMATIST

HERE IS SOMETHING THAT YOU CAN REALLY TALK ABOUT. AND IT'S FOR SALE NOW.

A collection of primitive money—both odd and curious from all over the world, dating back to 3,000 B.C. Sections of this collection have been used in conjunction with lectures for thirty-five years. YOU CAN DO IT YOURSELF.

Many of the smaller pieces are neatly mounted under glass in black walnut frames (15 in. x 17 in.). All with descriptive information. The collection must be seen to be appreciated. You can make money with these exhibits and still retain the title. Following is a list of a very few pieces: The world's smallest and largest GOLD, SILVER and COPPER MONEY; large stone money from YAP, copper plate money from Sweden, wife money from many African tribes; the largest wedding ring in the world from Nigeria; 1,000 blanket money from Alaska (made of copper and measures 30 in. high and 18 in. wide); famous "frog money" from French Cameroons; the Kissing Stone of Ethiopia; the rare MANEN GOLD OBAN from Japan (contains autograph of the Emperor on it); silver shoe money from old China, from tael to 50 taels; bronze money of the Aztecs and Mayan civilization of Central America; money made of jade, carnelian, bamboo, brick tea, pewter, porcelain, etc., from China, Laos, Burma, Manchuria, Mongolia, Tibet, Ceylon, Pahang, etc.

Then there is the lead pitti from Java (1200 equals one cent in U.S.) carved ivory snake bracelet from Belgian Congo; cowrie shell money belt from Timbuctoo; one billion marks in gilt from Westphalia (world's largest denomination coin); ancient trade beads from Luxor, Hudson Bay, Arizona, Sacramento. Heart scarabs from Egypt; cheese money from Minsk; bread money from Archangel; chocolate money from Campeche; money mentioned in the Bible; many specimens from the Dutch East Indies and the South Pacific.

If you are interested—CALL and see this educational exhibit. But first please phone for appointment. Call Hackettstown Garden 5-3335. Only fifty miles from New York City.

Address: J. HAROLD NUNN, 52 Main Street, Hackettstown, N. J.

On U. S. Route 46. Greyhound bus passes the door.

THE NUMISMATIST

Useful for cleaning all kinds of coins, but particularly adapted to cleaning coins of copper or nickel.

EASY TO USE AND ECONOMICAL!
FAST ACTION — IT ACTUALLY CLEANS IN SECONDS!

Does not add shine, but brings out natural color, including original brilliance if it is still there under tarnish or coating. Dull or dark uncirculated coins become brilliant uncirculated coins in seconds.

This result of years of experiment can be safely used on valuable coins to improve their appearance and increase their value.

On sale in many leading stores in 4-oz. bottles, with full directions, at $1.00.

If your dealer does not yet have it, send us $1.00 for 3-oz. bottle (enough to clean hundreds of coins) carefully packed and postpaid to any address in the United States or Canada.

SPECIAL OFFER TO DEALERS

Send $4.00 for six 4-oz. bottles of "CCC," postpaid.

HOW I GRADE LINCOLN CENTS

Seems like this is the big thing, and even some Dealers differ on this. Coins that have nicks, digs, scratches or coins that are badly worn, or that have bad defects, green, etc., are not collectable coins. I don't want them. I would if I could sell them, but I can't. So don't — Please — don't send them.

POOR, FAIR, ABOUT GOOD — I don't buy or want them; spend them.

GOOD — Worn coins, but still a collectable coin. Good date, mint mark, all writing clear, could show some wheat lines.

VERY GOOD — One-half or more wheat lines, one-half ear, etc. Must have one-half wheat.

FINE — Full wheat lines, nice rim, full hole in ear, etc.

VERY FINE — Sharp coin, sharp wheat, sharp ear, detail sharp, nice coin.

EXTREMELY FINE — Very little or no sign of wear, a well struck coin.

The easy way to grade coins — ask yourself, "Would I buy this coin at this grade for MY set?" One other thing, most coins have two sides, and the coin is only as good as its worst side. This means if one side is FINE and the other side is GOOD, then the coin must be graded as GOOD.

COOL EVENINGS ARE COMING!

If you have been enjoying the "summer sunshine" now is the time to dust off your collection, and, if you collect MODERN FOREIGN COINS, to see what you have missed during the summer months.

What better way is there than to write for my price list (a new one just ready) and get caught up on the new issues, and perhaps even fill in some gaps in your older collection. This price list is free for the asking — why not write for it now, and start the fall season right?

Perhaps you need the revised edition of Yeoman's "Catalog of Modern World Coins," cloth bound, now available at $4.00 postpaid. This is a necessity for any collector of modern foreign coins.
